DECISION

Fair Work Act 2009
s.185—Enterprise agreement

Geelong Performing Arts Centre Trust T/A Geelong Performing Arts Centre
(AG2017/5665)

GEELONG PERFORMING ARTS CENTRE ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2016 - 2020.

Live performance industry

DEPUTY PRESIDENT KOVACIC

[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the Geelong Performing Arts Centre Enterprise Agreement 2016-2020 (the Agreement). The application was made pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the Act). It has been made by Geelong Performing Arts Centre Trust T/A Geelong Performing Arts Centre. The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] Subject to concerns that have been addressed by way of undertakings, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187 and 188 of the Act as are relevant to this application for approval have been met.

[3] As noted, pursuant to s.190(3), I have accepted undertakings from Geelong Performing Arts Centre Trust T/A Geelong Performing Arts Centre. In accordance with s.191(1) of the Act the undertakings are taken to be a term of the Agreement. A copy of the undertakings are attached to this decision.

[4] The Media, Entertainment and Arts Alliance being a bargaining representative for the Agreement, has given notice under s.183 of the Act that it wants the Agreement to cover it. In accordance with s.201(2) I note that the Agreement covers the organisation.
The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s.54 of the Act, will operate from 29 March 2018. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 29 February 2020.

MELBOURNE VIC 3000

Dear Deputy President Kovacic,

RE: AG2017/5665 Application to expedite approval of the Geelong Performing Arts Centre Enterprise Agreement 2016 - 2020

Thank you for your consideration of our application for approval of the above Agreement.

We note that our letter of 7 March 2018 regarding undertakings included an inadvertent error in describing the Live Performance Award. We would now like to correct that error as follows:

- Regarding the concerns you have highlighted we have consulted with bargaining representative Adam Portelli, Media Entertainment and Arts Alliance and are agreed that we are willing to provide the following undertakings:

  - Geelong Performing Arts Centre undertakes that Grade 1 rates be paid at not less than applicable Live Performance Award 2010 rates (currently $19.88); and

  - Geelong Performing Arts Centre undertakes that clause 5.4 of the Enterprise Agreement will operate subject to the National Employment Standards.

We also advise that there has been a change in the Applicant for the approval of the Agreement and we have lodged a revised Form 16 today. Jill Smith’s employment finalised on Friday 16 March 2018 and I am now the new Chief Executive Officer making the application.

Again we thank you for your review of our application documents and look forward to the approval of our Agreement.

Yours sincerely,

Joel McGuinness
Chief Executive Officer
Note - this agreement is to be read together with an undertaking given by the employer. The undertaking is taken to be a term of the agreement. A copy of it can be found at the end of the agreement.

Preamble

The Geelong Performing Arts Centre (GPAC) Enterprise Agreement 2016–2020 is made under Section 172(2)(a) of the Fair Work Act 2009.
2 Formalities

2.1 Title
This Agreement shall be known as the Geelong Performing Arts Centre Enterprise Agreement 2016–2020.

2.2 Duration of agreement
This Agreement shall come into force seven days after it is approved by the Fair Work Commission (FWC). The nominal expiry date of this Agreement is 29 February 2020. The parties will use their best endeavours to commence negotiations for a new agreement no later than six (6) months prior to the nominal expiry date.

2.3 Parties bound and coverage
This Agreement is binding upon:

(a) The Geelong Performing Arts Centre Trust (GPACT) in respect of all employees (as defined in sub-clause (b) below)

(b) All employees employed by Geelong Performing Arts Centre (GPAC) excluding employees employed under a Government Sector Executive Remuneration Panel (GSERP) executive contract;

(c) In accordance with section 183(1) of the Fair Work Act 2009, this agreement will cover the Media Entertainment & Arts Alliance who were bargaining representatives for the Agreement, provided the Fair Work Commission (FWC) notes in its decision to approve the Agreement that the Agreement covers these Unions.

2.4 Quantum and timing for pay increases

2.4.1 Pay increases
Pay increases shall apply over the life of the Agreement as follows:

- 1 March 2017 - 3%
- 1 March 2018 - 3%
- 1 March 2019 - 3%

The current rates of pay and the adjusted rates of pay are set out in Appendix A.

2.4.2 Service delivery partnership plan (SDPP)
These pay rates include two SDPP initiatives:

- Ushers will sell food and beverages to patrons in their seat during interval periods at shows and performances at GPAC venues. Also, depending on front of house requirements, ushers with responsible service of alcohol (RSA) certificates may offer assistance behind the bar at interval.

- GPAC employees will engage in the Stage 2 implementation of EmpLive in order to save staff time and cost. EmpLive has a number of time-saving features, not currently utilised, that will eliminate processing duplication, move from paper-based forms to online access and provide enhanced communication with employees.

2.5 Exclusion of prior industrial instruments
This Agreement is a comprehensive Agreement and operates to the exclusion of any federal award and previous enterprise agreements between GPAC and its employees.
However, any entitlement in the nature of an accrued entitlement to an individual’s benefit, which has accrued under any such previous certified Agreement, will not be affected by the making of this Agreement.

2.6 Preserved rights / no disadvantage

No employee will, on balance, have his or her overall pay and conditions reduced as a result of the making of this Agreement.

2.7 No extra claims

It is agreed that up until the nominal expiry date of this Agreement, any extra claims relating to any terms and conditions of the employees’ employment will not be pursued by persons covered by this Agreement.

2.9 Anti-discrimination legislation

The parties to the Agreement acknowledge their statutory obligations in the Fair Work Act and State and Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation. Accordingly, in acknowledging their obligations, GPAC and employees must make every effort to ensure that the Agreement provisions are not directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects.
3 Employment at GPAC

3.1 Terms of engagement

Employees may be employed in one of the following categories:

(a) Ongoing, full time or part time
(b) Fixed term, full time or part time
(c) Casual
(d) Trainee

3.1.1 Ongoing employment

Ongoing employment applies where employees are employed on open-ended period of employment where there is no end date expressed or implied, subject to the rights to terminate employment by providing prescribed notice periods under this Agreement.

A Full time

Full time employment is where an employee works 38 ordinary hours of work per week.

B Part time

The hourly rate of pay for part time employees shall be made at the equivalent of full-time wage per week divided by 38.

Part time employees shall receive payment for all work performed in excess of the contracted ordinary hours but less than 38 hours in one week at the rate of single time.

Hours worked in excess of the number of hours specified as ordinary hours in one day shall be paid at the relevant overtime rates.

Part time employees accrue entitlements to personal leave and annual leave on a pro-rata basis.

C Ordinary hours of work and spread of hours

Ordinary hours of work and spread of hours are addressed in clause 9.2 for administration employees and section 10 for operations employees.

3.1.2 Fixed term

A fixed term employee is a full time or part time employee who is engaged for an agreed period of time.

3.1.3 Casual

Casual employees shall be engaged as required on an hourly basis with a minimum call of 3 hours with the exception of general staff meetings where the minimum call is 1.5 hours.

Casual employees shall be paid in accordance with Appendix A, which includes a loading in lieu of all paid leave entitlements, except long service leave.

Casual employees shall be paid at the applicable classification wage rate divided by 38 hours plus a 25% casual loading.

3.1.4 Probationary employment

New full time and fixed term employees are subject to a three month probationary period.

New part time employees are subject to a probationary period that is the equivalent of the lesser of 150 hours of work or a six month period from commencement of employment.
If conduct and/or performance issues are identified during the probationary period, the employee will be counselled during this period in relation to his or her conduct and/or performance and a written record shall be maintained. The probationary period may be extended by a period of not more than three months to allow for conduct and/or performance issues to be addressed.

(a) During the probationary period GPAC may terminate a probationary employee’s employment by giving one week’s notice or payment in lieu of notice, subject to the right to terminate an employee’s employment without notice or payment in lieu of notice if the employee who is on probation has committed any act of serious misconduct.

(b) In the event of the termination of employment GPAC must ensure that natural justice prevails in making that decision.

(c) Unless employment is terminated earlier in accordance with this clause, at the end of the period of probation, GPAC shall confirm the employee’s appointment in writing, or in the event that the employee’s conduct or performance during the probationary period is unsatisfactory, terminate the employment by the giving of one week’s notice.

(d) Once an employee has successfully completed their probationary period they will not undergo any further periods of probation in any subsequent positions with GPAC.

3.1.5 Trainees
Trainees engaged by GPAC will be subject to the terms and conditions outlined in Schedules E and E1 of the Live Performance Award 2010.

3.1.6 Overtime
(a) Overtime means the hours worked, at the direction of GPAC, which can be described as being one of the following:
   (i) in addition to an employee’s ordinary daily hours of work on any day
   (ii) in addition to an employee’s rostered ordinary hours of work

(b) An employee may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the employee working hours which are unreasonable having regard to:
   (i) any risk to the employee’s health and safety
   (ii) the employee’s personal circumstances including family responsibilities
   (iii) the needs of the workplace
   (iv) the notice (if any) given by GPAC of the overtime and by the employee of his or her intention to refuse it
   (v) any other relevant matter

3.1.7 Promotion of security of employment

A New permanent positions
GPAC acknowledges the positive impact that secure employment has on employees and the provision of services. In this context should it become apparent that the hours worked in a specific position(s) will continue for a period of no less than twelve months, management may consider creating a new permanent position(s). In this instance, systematic casuals may wish to consider applying for such a position(s) and will have the opportunity to consult with management about the position(s).
Consultation shall allow employees to compare remuneration received for their regular casual hours to that which would apply for the permanent position prior to a decision being made regarding an application.

Where a casual is appointed to a permanent position the employees’ previous service under their contracts will be taken into account when calculating long service leave entitlements.

B Use of short term consultants and contractors

GPAC will endeavour to give preference to employees covered by this agreement for any work to be performed under this agreement as GPAC acknowledges the benefits to its business, its stakeholders and to its workforce of engaging employees directly. However, it is recognised there will be occasions where there is no GPAC employee(s) available with a required skill set; there is not enough time to arrange for a GPAC employee to take on a shift; there is a gap before new employees can commence work; or GPAC is undertaking a short term specialist consultancy, where GPAC may engage contractors to perform the work, including those from agency or labour hire firms. In this instance GPAC will use its best endeavours to keep these engagements to a period of less than one month.

As with all areas of GPAC, working arrangements are subject to annual budget review and the on-going financial impact. GPAC will consult with employees and MEAA in accordance with clause 8.3 when it is considering a proposal to outsource work to an external third party contractor.

3.1.8 Volunteers

GPAC employees may have the responsibility of overseeing and/or directing volunteers. In these circumstances volunteers must also adhere to the GPAC’s OH&S policy and procedures and (in the case of volunteers associated with a hirer), be part of hirer’s risk assessment. Volunteers will not be used to undermine employment conditions of employees and their inclusion in an event will be at the discretion of GPAC Management.

3.1.9 Employer of choice for older workers

GPAC values diversity in the workplace and aspires to be an employer of choice for older workers who may or may not be transitioning into retirement.

3.1.10 Capacity to perform substantive position

Should GPAC become concerned about an employee’s ability to perform the inherent job requirements of their substantive position, GPAC will discuss its concerns with the employee to ascertain their longer term employment plans.

Should the employee want to remain working in the substantive role the employee would be required to obtain an assessment from a registered medical practitioner in relation to capacity. The employee may choose the medical practitioner. The cost of the assessment will be paid by GPAC. In this instance the assessment will include GPAC writing to the medical practitioner of the employee’s choice outlining the inherent requirements of the role and requesting a written response from the medical practitioner.

If it is determined by the medical practitioner that an employee is no longer able to perform any of the inherent job requirements of their substantive position, GPAC will give consideration to opportunities for redeployment and retraining.

3.2 Higher duties

There may be time when an employee is required to take responsibility and duties in addition to their current role. The payment of higher duties allowances recognise an increase in responsibility, delegated authority, level of decision making and overall autonomy.
A person who has been directed to perform the duties of a higher position for a continuous period of not less than five days shall be paid a higher duties allowance for the whole period served. The following applies:

3.2.1 Approval
Higher duties allowances must be approved by the GM or his/her delegate prior to higher duties being undertaken by the employee.

3.2.2 Range of duties and delegated authority
Managers must discuss the range of higher duties with the employee ensuring that the employee is equipped to perform the higher duties and is fully aware of the limits of their delegated authority during the period of working in the higher position.

3.2.3 Formal advice prior to commencement
Managers must advise the employee and the Finance and Administration Manager, in writing, of the range of higher duties, the period of higher duties and the proportion of duties performed at the higher position, prior to the commencement of the higher duties.

3.2.4 Rate of pay where an employee is promoted
Should an employee be promoted while performing higher duties the date from which the higher rate of pay shall apply is the date that the higher duties assignment commences.

3.2.5 Periods of less than 5 days
Managers may determine that the higher duties allowance can be paid for periods of less than 5 days when it is apparent that higher duties are being undertaken.

3.2.6 Higher duties allowance rates
Higher duties allowances will be calculated according to the following scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Proportion of duties performed in higher position</th>
<th>Rate of higher duties allowance as a percentage of the difference between the employee’s current rate of pay and the rate of pay applicable to the base of the higher position graded or appropriate classification of that person</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>At least 25% but less than 50%</td>
<td>25% of the difference as described above</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>At least 50% but less than 75%</td>
<td>50% of the difference as described above</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>At least 75% but less than 100%</td>
<td>75% of the difference as described above</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>100%</td>
<td>100% of the difference as described above</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

3.2.7 Casual employees performing all duties of a higher position
Casual employees who have been directed to perform all of the duties of a higher position for one rostered shift shall be paid not less than the minimum salary or wage for the higher position.

3.2.8 Casual employees performing a proportion of the duties of a higher position
Where casual employees perform only a proportion of the duties of the higher position the above table will apply.

3.2.9 Penalty rates during a period of higher duties
Penalty overtime rate applicable during the period of higher duties will be calculated and paid at the higher rate for weekly and hourly employees.
3.2.10 Tasks integral to a position excluded from higher duties

Higher duties will not be paid to employees for tasks that are considered an integral part of the position. For example the role of the Supervising Technician includes the following duties:

(a) Conducting tours of the facilities
(b) Induction procedures
(c) Participating in and delivering elements of training in workshops
(d) Sharing knowledge and expertise with all employees

3.3 Work life balance, health and wellbeing and safety

It is agreed that there is a mutual responsibility with regard to the wellbeing and safety of all employees and a balance between professional and family life.

Managers and employees are expected, through mutual and open consultation, to balance group and individual workloads, and maintain a healthy work-life balance. A number of strategies and arrangements are available as follows:

(a) The seasonal nature of business activity levels is acknowledged and it is agreed that there should be balance between the effect of intense work periods and the taking of regular leave breaks. Paid leave in the form of annual leave and time in lieu will be monitored regularly by the use of the GPAC Leave Planning Template.

   GPAC management will consider an employee’s commitments prior to filling emergency and out of normal hours staffing requirements.

(b) In addition home based work arrangements may be agreed between GPAC management and the employee on a case by case basis taking into account levels of business activity and workplace requirements.

3.4 Right to request flexible working arrangements

3.4.1 Requesting a change in working arrangements

An employee may request a change in working arrangements that may include but are not limited to changes in hours of work, changes in patterns of work and changes in location of work, in any of the following circumstances:

(a) the employee is a parent, or has responsibility for the care, of a child, who is of school age or younger;

(b) the employee is a carer;

(c) the employee has a disability;

(d) the employee is 55 or older;

(e) the employee is experiencing violence from a member of the employee’s family;

(f) the employee provides care or support to a member of the employee’s immediately family, or a member of the employee’s household, who requires care or support because the member is experiencing violence from the member’s family.

To avoid doubt, and without limiting clause 3.4.1 above, an employee who:

(a) is a parent, or has responsibility for the care, of a child; and

(b) is returning to work after taking leave in relation to the birth or adoption of a the child may request to work part-time to assist the employee to care for the child.

The employee is not entitled to make the request unless:
(a) for an employee other than a casual employee – the employee has completed at least 12 months of continuous service with GPAC immediately before making the request; or
(b) for a casual employee – the employee is a systematic casual of GPAC immediately before making the request; and has a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by GPAC on a regular and systematic basis.

3.4.2 Request must be in writing
The request must be in writing and set out details of the change sought and of the reasons for the change.

3.4.3 Employer must respond within 21 days
GPAC must give the employee a written response to the request within 21 days, stating whether GPAC grants or refuses the request.

3.4.4 Employer’s right of refusal on reasonable business grounds
GPAC may refuse the request only on reasonable business grounds. If GPAC refuses the request, the written response under subsection (4) must include details of the reasons for the refusal.

3.5 Individual flexibility arrangements

3.5.1 Employer and employee agreement
An employer and employee covered by this Agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of terms of the Agreement if the arrangement deals with one or more of the following matters:
(a) arrangements about when work is performed;
(b) overtime rates;
(c) penalty rates;
(d) allowances;
(e) leave loading;

3.5.2 Meeting genuine needs of employer and employee
The arrangement should meet the genuine needs of GPAC and the employee in relation to one or more of the matters mentioned in clause 3.5.1; and;
(a) the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by GPAC and the employee.
(b) GPAC must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:
   (i) are about permitted matters under section 172 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and
   (ii) are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and
   (iii) result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would be if no arrangement was made.

3.5.3 Arrangement must be in writing
GPAC must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:
(a) is in writing
(b) includes the name of GPAC and the employee; and
(c) is signed by GPAC and the employee and if the employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the employee; and
(d) includes details of:
(i) the terms of the enterprise agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and
(ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and
(iii) how the employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and
(e) states the day on which the arrangement commences.

GPAC must give the employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days of agreement.

3.5.4 Termination of the individual flexibility arrangement

GPAC or employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:
(a) by giving no more than 28 days written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or
(b) if GPAC and the employee agree in writing – at any time.

3.5.5 No duress

Entering into an individual flexibility arrangement may not be made a requirement by GPAC for any prospective employee gaining employment. GPAC and individual employee must have genuinely made the arrangement without duress or coercion.

3.6 Working off site

3.6.1 Choice

(a) On occasion GPAC may request that employees work off site. Employees are given the option of accepting work off site or not. This option does not apply to work performed at Deakin’s Costa Hall. All employees employed off site will be paid under this Agreement.

(b) An employee who is temporarily required to undertake duties at a location other than his or her usual place or places of work will have any period of additional travelling time regarded as time worked.

3.6.2 Facilities

The facilities for employees working off site and, at Deakin’s Costa Hall shall be comparable to those enjoyed at GPAC. This includes but is not limited to tea/coffee and drinking water provisions, sunscreen and hats for outdoor work, toilet and first aid facilities. When arrangements are being made by GPAC to provide employees to work off site, these conditions must be negotiated on behalf of employees.

3.7 Occupational health and safety

GPAC is committed to providing a safe workplace for all employees through business processes including:
(a) Annual safety plan
(b) Incident reporting system
(c) Maintenance requests system
(d) Occupational Health and Safety Committee
(e) Regular renewal of building and equipment infrastructure
(f) Occupational Health and Safety manual
(g) Relevant training such as annual emergency procedures, manual handling & first aid.

(h) Employee support and debriefing for critical incidents

(i) Negotiated agreed designated work groups/OH and S committee membership

3.8 Flexibility of job design

(a) All employees may be directed to carry out such duties as are within the limits of the employee’s skill, competence and training.

(b) For casual employees offered work under a classification not usually worked by that employee, the pay rate for that classification will apply. Employees will be notified of the applicable rate when offered the work.

3.9 Payment of wages

Employees shall be paid fortnightly. Payroll is processed and electronically transferred to employees’ bank accounts on the Monday immediately following the end of the fortnight. The timing of the crediting of net pay into an employee’s individual bank account will be dependent on the employee’s banking institution.

In the case of the following public holidays payroll shall be processed on the following working day being a Tuesday:

(a) Labour Day
(b) Easter Monday
(c) Queen’s Birthday
(d) Australia Day – where it falls on a Monday
(e) Anzac Day – where it falls on a Monday

In the case of the Christmas/New Year period the following shall apply:

(a) Full time employees shall be paid in advance on the last working day prior to Christmas Day to cover the period up to the next payday in the New Year.

(b) Casual employees shall be paid on the last working day prior to Christmas Day for work done up to the day before.

(c) Casual employees shall be paid for work done from the last working day prior to Christmas Day to New Year’s Day on the first working day of the New Year

Adjustments to wages, for any reason, will be made in the next fortnightly pay. In the case of overpayments the value of the adjustment may be spread over more than one fortnight by mutual agreement between GPAC and the employee.

An option for pay in advance for annual leave purposes will be made available for employees.

GPAC agrees to pay any reasonable costs incurred by the employee for non-payment or significant delays in payments

3.10 Superannuation

3.10.1 Payment of superannuation

(a) GPAC will pay to all employees, regardless of their age and including employees who are below the monthly earnings threshold, superannuation contributions in accordance with the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 including:

(i) Gross wages – before tax

(ii) Overtime payments
(iii) Penalty payments
(iv) Higher duties allowance
(v) Video allowance
(vi) Paid parental leave, excluding payments made under the Government Paid Parental Leave Scheme.

(b) GPAC will pay superannuation contributions (including salary sacrifice) on behalf of each employee at least monthly and in full to the nominated superannuation fund. Reasonable administrative costs in relation to these payments will be met by GPAC.

3.10.2 Choice of superannuation fund

All employees are able to have SGC contributions made to the superannuation fund of their choice provided that the superannuation fund is a complying fund. If desired by an employee, GPAC will accept a change in choice of fund once every twelve months.

GPAC will include an information session relating to superannuation options and benefits as part of a general staff meeting.

3.10.3 Default fund

When there is no chosen fund in respect of an employee, GPAC will make all contributions to the Local Authorities Superannuation Fund, known as Vision Super.

3.11 Salary sacrifice options

Permanent full-time and part-time employees may choose to enter into salary sacrificing arrangements that are consistent with GPAC policy and State and Federal Government legislation and policy.

The total cost to GPAC of providing any such employment benefits, including fringe benefits tax where applicable and reasonable administrative costs, will not exceed the gross pay that the employee would receive without salary sacrificing arrangements.

The availability of salary sacrifice options is subject to review in the event of legislative or other changes.

Salary sacrifice applies to a range of exempt benefits and concessional FBT items including but not limited to professional body membership, work related electronic devices, home office, self-education expenses, tools of trade, work-related travel, superannuation and novated lease for a vehicle.

GPAC will fully administer the salary sacrifice of superannuation at no additional cost to employees.

GPAC will engage the services of a salary packaging service provider to administer all salary sacrifice arrangements other than superannuation. Employees will pay the service provider’s administrative costs according to the service provider’s Fees & Charges Schedule as part of the salary package. The service provider will deliver an education program to employees.

Employees wishing to take advantage of salary sacrificing arrangements are encouraged to seek independent financial advice (at their cost) to ensure such arrangements are suited to both their short and long-term circumstances including superannuation implications.

3.12 Accident pay – workers’ compensation

GPAC will pay accident pay where the employee is absent from work as a result of sustaining an injury in respect of which the employee is entitled to weekly payments of compensation under the provisions of the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 (Vic).
GPAC shall pay accident pay during the incapacity of the employee within the meaning of the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 (Vic), until incapacity ceases or until the expiration of a period of 52 weeks from the date of the injury, whichever event shall first occur.

In the event of the employee receiving a lump sum in redemption of weekly payments under the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 (Vic) the liability of GPAC to pay accident pay shall cease from the date of redemption.

3.13 Employees eligible for a supported wage

This clause defines the conditions which will apply to employees who because of the effects of a disability are eligible for a supported wage. In the context of this clause, the following definitions will apply:

- Supported Wage System: the Commonwealth Government system to promote employment for people who cannot work at full award wages because of a disability, as documented in "Supported Wage System: Guidelines and Assessment Process".
- Accredited Assessor: a person accredited by the management unit established by the Commonwealth under the Supported Wage System to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the Supported Wage System.
- Disability Support Pension: the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided under the Social Security Act 1991, as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme.
- Assessment Instrument: the form provided for under the Supported Wage System that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the Supported Wage System.

3.13.1 Eligibility criteria

(a) Employees covered by this clause will be those who are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level required within the class of work for which they are engaged, because of the effects of a disability on their productive capacity and who meet the impairment criteria for receipt of a Disability Support Pension.

(b) The clause does not apply to any existing employee who has a claim against GPAC which is subject to the provisions of workers' compensation legislation or any provision relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their current employment.

(c) This clause does not apply to GPAC in respect of their facility, programme, undertaking, service or the like which receives funding under the Disability Services Act 1986 and fulfils the dual role of service provider and sheltered employer to people with disabilities who are in receipt of or are eligible for a Disability Support Pension, except with respect to recognition under s.10 or s.12A of the Act, or if a part only has received recognition, that part.

3.13.2 Supported wage rates

(a) Employees to whom this clause applies shall be paid the applicable percentage of the minimum rate of pay prescribed for the class of work which the person is performing according to the following schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessed Capacity</th>
<th>% of prescribed rate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10*</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
Provided that the minimum amount payable shall be not less than $82 per week.

(b) Where a person's assessed capacity is 10%, they shall receive a high degree of assistance and support.

3.13.3 Assessment of capacity

(a) For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the rate to be paid to an employee, their productive capacity will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System and documented in an assessment instrument, by either:

(b) GPAC and an employee representative, in consultation with the employee; or if desired by any of these,

(c) GPAC and an accredited assessor from a panel agreed by the parties and the employee.

3.13.4 Lodgement of assessment instrument

All assessment instruments under the conditions of this clause, including the appropriate percentage of the wage to be paid to the employee, shall be lodged by GPAC with the Registrar of the FWC.

3.13.5 Review of assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage should be subject to annual review or earlier on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review shall be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the Supported Wage System.

3.13.6 Other terms and conditions of employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage shall apply to the wage rate only. Employees covered by the provisions of the clause will be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as all other employees paid on a pro-rata basis.

3.13.7 Workplace adjustment

When employing a person under the provisions of this clause, GPAC shall take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee’s capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other employees in the area.

3.13.8 Trial period

(a) In order for an adequate assessment of the employee’s capacity to be made, GPAC may employ a person under the provisions of this clause for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding 4 weeks) may be needed.
(i) During that trial period the assessment of capacity shall be undertaken and the proposed wage rate for a continuing employment relationship shall be determined.

(ii) The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period shall be no less than $82 per week.

(iii) Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialled.

(b) Where GPAC and the employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment shall be entered into based on the outcome of assessment.

3.14 Training, learning and professional development

3.14.1 Levels of learning

Training helps improve skills and contributes to growth and innovation. GPAC provides a range of training opportunities for all employees including sessions at general staff meetings, OH&S staff meetings and emergency training. It is important that the delivery of training achieves the best possible result for GPAC and employees to deliver a return on time and financial investment.

The annual training program will be communicated to employees once budget and training plan are finalised.

There are three levels of learning:

A Level 1 Induction

Training is provided in general organisational awareness which ensures that employees have good working knowledge of GPAC, its departments, code of conduct, overarching workplace policies and procedures and the roles of other employees.

B Level 2 Compliance

Training is provided in OH&S, first aid and emergency training, which ensures that employees are equipped to work in a safe manner, compliant with OH&S Standards and the Safety Guidelines for the performing arts sector.

C Level 3 Discretionary

(a) Training is provided in specific job-related skills training and networking opportunities, which ensure that employees are equipped to perform their individual workplace roles effectively and efficiently. Training opportunities available to employees may also include the development of human resource and industrial relations skills for all employees in leadership and employee representative positions.

(b) All employees are required to participate at the induction and compliance level. Involvement in training at the discretionary level is dependent on strategic objectives, workplace needs and employee skill levels. All employees will be encouraged to discuss individual training opportunities during annual performance reviews in the context of the development of their annual work plan or more broadly at departmental or general employee meetings.

3.14.2 Study leave

(a) GPAC will work with employees to seek out other professional development and networking opportunities which will, where appropriate, assist career progression into the industry.
(b) Approval of study leave will depend on the relevance of the course to the employee’s current work and future direction and approval of the general manager. Study leave hours and any course fee reimbursement will be agreed in consultation with supervisor and Finance and Administration Manager in the context of the training budget.

(c) Where an approved training program is undertaken during an employee’s ordinary working hours, GPAC agree to pay the employee their ordinary pay.

3.14.3 General staff meetings

GPAC will hold 4 general staff meetings a year with a minimum paid call of 1.5 hours. One of these meetings will be dedicated to O H and S matters.

3.15 Performance review

Whilst it is expected that work performance feedback is an ongoing process, employees have the opportunity to be part of an annual performance review. The review will assess a range of performance criteria including:

(a) Contributing to GPAC’s success as defined by individual performance plans;
(b) The continued acquisition of skills and competencies appropriate to the position; and
(c) Identification of future training opportunities.

3.16 Childcare costs

Where an employee is required to work outside their ordinary hours of work (such as overtime hours) and where less than 24 hours’ notice of the requirement to perform such work has been given by GPAC, the employee will be reimbursed for reasonable childcare expenses incurred. Evidence of expenditure incurred by the employee must be provided to GPAC as soon as possible after the working of such hours.

3.17 Rostering

3.17.1 Rostered week

A rostered week commences on Monday and finishes on Sunday.

3.17.2 Expected workloads

Every attempt will be made to roster employees in an accurate way, to best respond to the expected workload. However, circumstances can change and it is expected that employees acknowledge the need and commit to work outside the rostered shift.

Examples include:

(a) A show runs longer than expected, requiring operational employees to stay beyond the rostered finish time
(b) Equipment failure delays the bump in schedule
(c) Emergency evacuation delays expected finish time of performance

3.17.3 Advice to employees

GPAC will use its best endeavours to ensure employees will be made aware of venue activity and expected employment needs and roster with a minimum of one (1) weeks’ notice. This aims to assist casual employees to organise their alternative work commitments.

To assist the rostering process employees will also use their best endeavours to confirm their availabilities with two (2) weeks’ notice.
3.17.4 Notification of rosters
Through the Emplive system and other means GPAC will notify employees of their rostered shift by:
(a) Posting the roster on relevant staff notice boards:
(b) Telephone/email and/or SMS confirmation; and
(c) On line access to rosters.
(d) Seven days’ notice of rosters will be provided.

3.17.5 Late changes to rosters
Late changes will be made in the case of:
(a) show cancellation
(b) hirer change to scale, nature or timing of a production
(c) late notification of hirer technical or customer service requirements
(d) 24 hour notice will be given for all late changes.

3.17.6 Reductions in rostered hours
Any reduction in rostered working hours can only be made by mutual consent with the employee.
If an employee has a rostered shift cancelled within 24 hours, then the employee will be paid for the rostered shift.

3.17.7 Technical employees (weekly)
In the case of weekly technical employees the following guidelines shall be applied if it is reasonably possible to arrange rosters accordingly.
(a) Employees shall not be required to work on more than six days in any one week except:
(b) In cases of emergency and then no more than three times per year. This may be extended up to five times per year if agreement is reached with the majority of employees affected
(c) When the seventh day is a day on which no performance (other than a charity performance) is presented
(d) It is possible that employees may work more than ten days without a break if two rostered periods join without a break. The instances of this are to be minimised through careful rostering.

3.17.8 No favouritism or prejudice
When rostering employees, managers and coordinators will roster without favouritism and prejudice and give consideration to employees who:
(a) Balance the appropriate skills and experience required for the work available
(b) Are classified at the appropriate level for the work
(c) Meet the operational needs of GPAC
(d) Are available to work.

3.18 Consultation about changes to regular rosters or ordinary hours of work
(a) Where GPAC proposes to change an employee’s regular roster or GPAC ordinary hours of work, it will consult with the employee(s) affected and their representatives and must notify the relevant employee(s) of the proposed ordinary hours of work as soon as practicable.

(b) The relevant employee(s) may appoint a representative for the purposes of consultation.

(c) If the relevant employee(s) appoint a representative for the purposes of consultation the employee(s) must advise GPAC of the identity of the representative and GPAC must recognise the representative.

(d) As soon as practicable after proposing to introduce the change GPAC will provide to the relevant employee(s) and or their representative if any:

(i) all relevant information about the proposed change including the nature of the change;

(ii) information about what GPAC reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the employee(s);

(iii) information about any other matters that GPAC reasonably believes are likely to affect the employee(s);

(iv) an invitation to the employee(s) affected to give their views about the impact of the proposed change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).

(e) GPAC is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant employee(s).

(f) GPAC must give prompt and genuine consideration to any views on the proposed change that are given by the employee(s) concerned and/or their representatives.

3.19 Recruitment

(a) The employment process used by GPAC will be based on the following principles:

(i) Merit – choosing people for the right reasons

(ii) Fair and reasonable treatment – respecting and balancing people’s needs

(iii) Equal employment opportunity – providing a fair go for all

(iv) Avenue of redress – resolving issues fairly

(b) The prime objective of recruitment at GPAC is to obtain the best person for the role.

(c) All vacant positions will be advertised, unless filled:

(i) via employees transfer at-level, or

(ii) through redeployment of an employee without a substantive position.

(d) Employees will not ever be expected to perform two whole positions at once.

(e) Employees will be made aware of career opportunities available within GPAC. Employees shall be notified of all vacancies. Any vacancies that are advertised externally shall be advertised internally at the same time. Advertisements will be communicated with employees on noticeboards and sent via email.

(f) If an employee is unsuccessful for a position they have applied for, they will be provided an opportunity to seek feedback and to raise any concerns regarding the process undertaken by GPAC to fill the position.

(i) This requires decisions to be recorded sufficiently to enable effective review.

(ii) If an employee requests feedback as to their unsuccessful application, a selection report will be provided to the employee outlining the process followed relating to their application.
(iii) Any concerns raised through this manner will be considered genuinely and a response will be provided by GPAC to the employee proposing a suitable outcome.

(g) If a flaw is found to have occurred at any stage of the process, the process will recommence either:

(i) at the stage where the flaw occurred, or

(ii) at the beginning,

whichever is deemed more suitable by GPAC.
4 Leave

4.1 Annual leave

(a) Annual Leave is an entitlement of full and part time employees, which is to be taken at a time mutually agreed by the employee and their manager. Employees are entitled to 20 days leave in each completed twelve-month period of service. The leave accrues progressively during a year of service according to the employee’s ordinary hours of work and accumulates from year to year.

(b) Annual leave loading is paid at 17.5% of the ordinary rate of pay.

(c) To assist employees in balancing their work and family responsibilities, by agreement between the employee and GPAC/their manager, annual leave may be taken at any time within a period of 24 months from the date at which it falls due.

(d) An employee may elect, with the consent of their manager, to take annual leave in single one-day periods not exceeding ten occasions in any calendar year at a time or times agreed between them.

(e) Public holidays (clause 4.2 below), which fall within an employee’s annual leave, shall not be regarded as part of that annual leave. Such days shall be recognised and paid as public holidays, not as annual leave.

(f) Where an employer and an employee have not agreed when the employee is to take his or her annual leave GPAC is not to unreasonably refuse the employee taking, at any time suitable to the employee, any period of annual leave the entitlement to which accrued more than 24 months before that time. The employee is to consult with GPAC as to the most suitable time in relation to operations/workload and must give GPAC at least 2 weeks’ notice of the period during which the employee intends to take the leave.

4.2 Public holidays

(a) GPAC recognises gazetted public holidays and under the Fair Work Act and Public Holidays Act 1993, Victorian employees are entitled to the following public holidays:

(i) New Year’s Day, 1 January
(ii) Australia Day, 26 January
(iii) Labour Day, the second Monday in March
(iv) Good Friday
(v) Easter Saturday
(vi) Easter Sunday
(vii) Easter Monday
(viii) Anzac Day, 25 April
(ix) Queen’s Birthday – the second Monday in June
(x) Friday prior to AFL Grand Final where gazetted
(xi) Geelong Cup Day, date as officially listed by the Geelong Racing Club, substituted for Melbourne Cup Day
(xii) Christmas Day, 25 December
(xiii) Boxing Day, 26 December

(b) Victorian employees are also entitled to the following additional or substitute days:

(i) When Christmas Day is a Saturday or a Sunday, a holiday in lieu shall be observed on 27 December.
(ii) When Boxing Day is a Saturday or a Sunday, an additional holiday shall be observed on 28 December.

(iii) When New Year’s Day is a Saturday or a Sunday, an additional holiday shall be observed on the next Monday.

(iv) When Australia Day is a Saturday or a Sunday, a holiday in lieu shall be observed on the next Monday.

An employee may, by agreement, substitute another day for any prescribed in this clause to observe religious or cultural occasions or like reasons of significance to them as an individual.

(c) GPAC may reasonably request employees to work on public holidays to meet operational requirements. In this case penalty rates as set out in clauses 9.4, 9.6, 10.1.8, 10.2.4 and 10.3.4 apply.

4.3 Personal/carers’ leave

4.3.1 Application

The provisions of this clause apply to full time and part time employees. Specific personal/carers’ leave entitlements are detailed in clause 9.1 for administration employees and clause 10.9 for operations employees. See clause 4.3.5 below for casual employees’ entitlements.

The following common provisions will be available to all employees when they are absent due to:

(a) personal illness or injury (sick leave);
(b) personal illness or injury of an immediate family or household member who requires the employee's care or support (carer’s leave); or
(c) an unexpected emergency affecting an immediate family or household member; or
(d) the requirement to provide ongoing care and attention to another person who is wholly or substantially dependent on the employee, provided that the care and attention is not wholly or substantially on a commercial basis (carer’s leave).

4.3.2 Personal leave

(a) An employee’s entitlement accrues progressively during a year of service according to the employee’s ordinary hours of work and unused personal/carers’ leave accumulates from year to year.

(b) The employee shall not be entitled to paid sick leave for any period of absence in respect of which they are paid workers' compensation.

(c) The employee shall notify their Manager prior to his/her commencing time that he/she is unable to work because of illness or injury unless that is not possible because of the nature of the illness or injury or at the latest within 24 hours of the commencement of such sick leave absence, and shall so far as practicable state the nature of the illness or injury from which he or she is suffering and the estimated period of his or her absence.

(d) For any period of sick/carers’ leave exceeding three days continuous absence, GPAC may require the employee to provide evidence in support of their absence on sick/carers’ leave in the form of a medical certificate from a registered health practitioner or if this is not reasonably practicable, the employee may, upon agreement, provide a statutory declaration.

(e) An employee may be absent from duty because of illness for periods of three days or less without producing a medical certificate, provided that the aggregate of such absences does not exceed five days in any one year.
A public holiday occurring during any period of sick leave should not be regarded as sick leave. On the production of medical evidence in respect of a period of personal sickness or injury occurring during an employee's absence on recreation leave or long service leave, GPAC shall:

(a) debit such periods of personal sickness or injury against the employee’s sick leave entitlement subject to the existence of sufficient sick leave credit

(b) credit the employee additional recreation leave or long service leave equivalent to the period of personal sickness or injury

4.3.3 Carer’s leave: immediate family or household

A Definition of immediate family

The term immediate family includes:

(a) Spouse (including a former spouse, a de facto partner and a former de facto partner) of the employee. A de facto partner means a person who, although not legally married to the employee, lives with the employee in a relationship as a couple on a genuine domestic basis (whether the employee and the person are of the same sex or different sexes); and

(b) Child or an adult child (including an adopted child, a step child or an ex nuptial child), parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee or spouse of the employee.

In normal circumstances an employee is not entitled to take carer’s leave where another person has taken leave to care for the same person.

B Use of accumulated personal/carer’s leave

An employee is entitled to use accumulated personal leave to care for members of their immediate family who are sick & require care and support or who require care due to an unexpected emergency, where the current year’s personal/carer’s leave entitlement has been exhausted and subject to the condition set out in this clause.

Leave granted under this clause is subject to established notice requirements for leave taken to care for members of the employee’s immediate family who are sick and require care and support. When taking leave to care for members of their immediate family or household who require care due to an unexpected emergency, the employee must, if required by management, establish by production of acceptable documentation, the nature of the emergency and that such emergency resulted in the person concerned requiring care by the employee.

4.3.4 Absence on public holidays

If the period during which an employee takes paid personal/carer’s leave includes a day or part-day that is a public holiday in the place where the employee is based for work purposes, the employee is taken not to be on paid personal/carer’s leave on that public holiday.

4.3.5 Casual employees – caring responsibilities and compassionate leave

Casual employees are entitled to be unavailable to attend work or to leave work:

(a) if they need to care for members of their immediate family or household who are sick and require care or support, or who require care due to an unexpected emergency, or the birth of a child; or

(b) if a member of the employee’s immediate family or a member of the employee’s household:

   (i) contracts or develops a personal illness that poses a serious threat to his or her life;
(ii) sustains a personal injury that poses a serious threat to his/her life; or
(iii) dies.

GPAC and the employee will agree on the period for which the employee will be entitled to be unavailable to attend work. In the absence of agreement, the employee is entitled to be unavailable to attend work for two (2) days per occasion. The casual employee is not entitled to any payment for the period of non-attendance.

GPAC will require the casual employee to provide satisfactory evidence to support the taking of this leave.

GPAC must not fail to re-engage a casual employee because the employee accessed the entitlements provided for above. The rights of GPAC to engage or not to engage a casual employee is otherwise not affected.

4.4 Unpaid personal/carers leave

4.4.1 Entitlement

Where an employee has exhausted all paid personal/carer’s leave entitlements, he/she is entitled to take unpaid carer’s leave to provide care or support in the circumstances outlined in clause 4.3 above.

4.4.2 Absence of agreement regarding period of unpaid leave

GPAC and the employee will agree on the period. In the absence of agreement the employee is entitled to take two (2) days’ unpaid leave per occasion provided leave granted is subject to established GPAC procedures and medical certificate requirements for leave taken to care for members of the employee’s family or household who require care due to an unexpected emergency.

4.4.3 Medical documentation

The employee must, if required, provide acceptable medical documentation establishing the nature of the emergency or illness and that this resulted in individual requiring care by the employee.

4.5 Parental leave

4.5.1 Application

Full time, part time and eligible casual employees are entitled to parental leave under this clause if:

(a) the leave is associated with:

(i) the birth of a child of the employee or the employee’s spouse; or
(ii) the placement of a child with the employee for adoption; and

(b) the employee has or will have a responsibility for the care of the child.

4.5.2 Parental leave definitions

For the purposes of this clause:

(a) Eligible casual employee means a casual employee:

(i) employed by GPAC on a regular and systematic basis for a continuing period or sequence of periods of employment during a period of at least twelve months; and
(ii) who has, but for accessing parental leave under this clause, a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by GPAC on a regular and systematic basis.

(b) Continuous service is work for GPAC on a regular and systematic basis (including any period of authorised leave).

(c) Child means:

(i) in relation to birth-related leave, a child (or children from multiple births) of the employee or the employee’s spouse.

(ii) in relation to adoption-related leave, a child (or children) who will be placed with an employee, and:
- who is, or who will be, under 16 as at the day of placement or the expected day of placement; and
- has not, or will not have, lived continuously with the employee for a period of 6 months or more as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement; and
- is not (otherwise than because of adoption) a child of the employee or the employee’s spouse.

(d) Primary caregiver means the person who is the primary carer of a newborn or newly adopted child. The primary carer is the person who meets the child’s physical needs more than anyone else. Only one person can be a child’s primary carer on a particular day. In most cases the Primary Caregiver will be the birth mother of a newborn or the initial primary carer of a newly adopted child.

(e) Secondary caregiver means a person who has parental responsibility for the Child but is not the Primary Caregiver.

(f) Spouse includes a de facto spouse, former spouse, or former de facto spouse. The employee’s de facto spouse means a person who lives with the employee as a husband, wife or same sex partner on a bone fide domestic basis, whether or not legally married to the employee.

4.5.3 Summary of parental leave entitlements

4.5.4 Parental leave – primary caregiver

An employee who will be the primary caregiver at the time of the birth or adoption of their child, and who has completed at least twelve months of continuous service, is entitled to up to 52 weeks parental leave comprising 14 weeks paid and up to 38 weeks unpaid parental leave.

An eligible casual employee who will be the primary caregiver at the time of birth or adoption of their Child is entitled to up to 52 weeks unpaid parental leave.

Only one parent can receive primary caregiver parental leave entitlements in respect to the birth or adoption of their child. An employee cannot receive primary caregiver parental leave entitlements:

- if their spouse is, or will be, the primary caregiver at the time of birth or adoption of their child.
- if their spouse has received or will receive, paid maternity leave, primary caregiver entitlements or a similar entitlement from their employer; or
- if the employee has received, or will receive, secondary caregiver parental leave entitlements to their child.

A period of parental leave taken in accordance with this clause must be for a single continuous period.

4.5.5 Parental leave – secondary caregiver

An employee who has, or will have, completed at least 12 months paid continuous service and who will be the secondary caregiver at the time of the birth or adoption of their Child is entitled to up to 52 weeks parental leave, comprising 2 weeks paid parental leave and up to 50 weeks unpaid parental leave.

An employee who will be the secondary caregiver but has not completed at least 12 months paid continuous service at the time of birth or adoption of their child, is entitled to up to 52 unpaid weeks parental leave.

An eligible casual employee who will be the secondary caregiver at the time of birth or adoption of the child is entitled to up to 52 weeks unpaid parental leave.
Only one parent can receive secondary caregiver parental leave entitlements in respect to the birth or adoption of their child.

An employee cannot receive secondary caregiver parental leave entitlements where the employee has received primary caregiver parental leave entitlements in relation to their child.

4.5.6 Pre-natal leave

A pregnant employee will have access to paid leave totalling up to one hour per pregnancy to enable the employee to attend routine medical appointments associated with the pregnancy. GPAC will be flexible to allow the employee the ability to leave work and return on the same day.

An employee who has a Spouse who is pregnant will have access to paid leave totalling up to 1 hours per pregnancy to enable the employee to attend routine medical appointments associated with the pregnancy.

The employee is required to provide a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner confirming that the employee or their Spouse is pregnant. Each absence of pre-natal leave must also be covered by a medical certificate.

Paid pre-natal leave is not available to casual employees.

4.5.7 Pre-adoption leave

An employee seeking to adopt a Child is entitled to one hours paid leave and unpaid leave for the purpose of attending any compulsory interviews or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure.

The employee and GPAC should agree on the length of the unpaid leave. Where agreement cannot be reached, the employee is entitled to take up to 2 days unpaid leave.

Where paid leave is available to the employee, GPAC may require the employee to take such leave instead.

GPAC may require the employee to provide satisfactory evidence supporting the leave.

4.5.8 Permanent care leave

If, pursuant to the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 (Vic) or any successor to that legislation, an employee with at least 12 months continuous service (other than a casual employee), is granted a permanent care order in relation to the custody or guardianship of a child and the employee is the Primary Caregiver for that child, the employee will be entitled to 1 weeks’ paid and up to 2 weeks unpaid leave at a time to be agreed with GPAC.

4.5.9 Grandparent leave

An employee, who is or will be the Primary Caregiver of a grandchild, is entitled to a period of up to 1 weeks’ paid leave and up to 2 weeks’ unpaid grandparent leave in respect of the birth or adoption of the grandchild of the employee.

4.5.10 Continuing to work while pregnant

GPAC may require a pregnant employee to provide a medical certificate stating that the employee is fit to work their normal duties where the employee:

(a) continues to work within a 6 week period immediately prior to the expected date of birth of the child; or

(b) is on paid leave under clause 4.5.12(b)

GPAC may require the employee to start parental leave if the employee:

(a) does not give GPAC the requested certificate within 7 days of the request; or
(b) gives GPAC a medical certificate stating that the employee is unfit to work.

4.5.11 Personal/carer’s leave

A pregnant employee, not then on parental leave, who is suffering from an illness whether related or not to the pregnancy, may take any paid and/or unpaid personal/carer’s leave in accordance with clause 4.3 and clause 4.4 of this Agreement.

4.5.12 Transfer to a safe job

Where an employee is pregnant and, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at their present work, the employee will be transferred to a safe job with no other change to the employee’s terms and conditions of employment until the commencement of parental leave.

If there is no safe job available, the employee is entitled to take paid no safe job leave, or GPAC may require the employee to take no safe job paid leave immediately for a period which ends at the earliest of either:

(a) when the employee is certified unfit to work during the 6 week period before the expected date of birth by a registered medical practitioner; or

(b) when the employee’s pregnancy results in the birth of a living child or when the employee’s pregnancy ends otherwise than with the birth of a living child.

The entitlement to no safe job leave is in addition to any other leave entitlement the employee has.

4.5.13 Special parental leave

Where the pregnancy of an employee not then on parental leave terminates other than by the birth of a living child, the employee may take leave for such periods as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary, as follows:

(a) where the pregnancy terminates during the first 20 weeks, during the certified period/s the employee is entitled to access any paid and/or unpaid personal/carer’s leave entitlements in accordance with clause 4.3 and clause 4.4 of this Agreement

(b) where the pregnancy terminates after the completion of 20 weeks, during the certified period/s the employee is entitled to paid special maternity leave not exceeding the amount of paid parental leave available under clause 4.5.3 and thereafter, to unpaid special parental leave.

4.5.14 Notice and evidence requirements

An employee must give at least 10 weeks written notice of the intention to take parental leave, including the proposed start and end dates. At this time, the employee must also provide a statutory declaration stating:

(a) that the employee will become either the primary caregiver or secondary caregiver of the child, as appropriate;

(b) the particulars of any parental leave taken or proposed to be taken or applied for by the employee’s spouse; and

(c) that for the period of parental leave the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with their contract of employment.

At least 4 weeks before the intended commencement of parental leave, the employee must confirm in writing the intended start and end dates of the parental leave, or advise GPAC of any changes to the notice provided in this clause, unless it is not practicable to do so.
GPAC may require the employee to provide evidence which would satisfy a reasonable person of:

(a) in the case of birth-related leave, the date of birth of the child (including without limitation, a medical certificate stating the date of birth or expected date of birth); or

(b) in the case of adoption-related leave, the commencement of the placement (or expected day of placement) of the child and that the child will be under 16 years of age as at the day of placement or expected day of placement.

An employee will not be in breach of this clause if failure to give the stipulated notice is occasioned by confinement or placement occurring earlier than the expected date or in other compelling circumstances. In these circumstances the notice and evidence requirements of this clause should be provided as soon as reasonably practicable.

4.5.15 Commencement of parental leave

An employee who is pregnant may commence primary caregiver parental leave at any time within 14 weeks prior to the expected date of birth of the child. The period of parental leave must commence no later than the date of birth of the child.

In all other cases, primary caregiver parental leave commences on the day of birth or placement of the child.

Secondary caregiver parental leave may commence on the day of birth or placement of the child.

GPAC and the employee may agree to alternative arrangements regarding the commencement of parental leave.

Unless otherwise agreed, any entitlement to paid parental leave will be paid from the date of commencement of parental leave.

4.5.16 Single period of parental leave

Primary caregiver parental leave is to be available to only one parent at a time, in a single unbroken period, except in the case of concurrent leave.

4.5.17 Employee couple – concurrent leave

Two employees covered by this Agreement may take up to 8 weeks concurrent leave in connection with the birth or adoption of their child.

Concurrent leave may commence 1 week prior to the expected date of birth of the child or the time of placement in the case of adoption.

Concurrent leave can be taken in separate periods, but each block of concurrent leave must not be less than 2 weeks, unless GPAC otherwise agrees.

4.5.18 Parental leave and other entitlements

An employee may in lieu of or in conjunction with parental leave, access any annual leave or long service leave entitlements which they have accrued subject to the total amount of leave not exceeding 52 weeks or a longer period as agreed under clause 4.5.20B of this Agreement.

Where a public holiday occurs during a period of paid parental leave, the Public Holiday is not to be regarded as part of the paid parental leave and GPAC will grant the employee a day off in lieu, to be taken by the employee immediately following the period of paid parental leave.

Unpaid parental leave under clauses 4.5.4, 4.5.5, 4.5.20 and 4.5.22 shall not break an employee’s continuity of employment but it will not count as service for leave accrual or other purposes.
4.5.19 Keeping in touch days

During a period of parental leave GPAC and the employee may agree to perform work for the purpose of keeping in touch in order to facilitate a return to employment at the end of the period of leave.

Keeping in touch days must be agreed and be in accordance with section 79A of the Fair Work Act 2009.

An employee may perform up to ten days of paid work for their employer (or another entity) as keeping in touch days whilst the employee is taking unpaid parental leave if:

(a) the purpose of the work is to enable the employee to keep in touch with their employment in order to facilitate a return to that employment;

(b) both the employee and GPAC consent to the employee performing work for GPAC on that day; and

(c) the keeping in touch day is not within:

(i) if the employee suggested the keeping in touch day, 14 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child to which the period of leave relates; or otherwise

(ii) otherwise, 42 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child.

A keeping in touch day does not break the continuity or extend the period of unpaid parental leave.

4.5.20 Extending parental leave

A Extending the initial period of parental leave

(a) An employee who is on an initial period of parental leave of less than 52 weeks under clause 4.5.4 or 4.5.5 may extend the period of their parental leave on one occasion up to the full 52 week entitlement.

(b) The employee must notify GPAC in writing at least 2 weeks prior to the end date of their initial parental leave period. The notice must specify the new end date of the parental leave.

B Right to request an extension to parental leave

(a) An employee who is on parental leave under 4.5.4 or 4.5.5 may request an extension of unpaid parental leave for a further period of up to 12 months immediately following the end of the current parental leave period.

(b) In the case of an employee who is a member of an employee couple, the period of the extension cannot exceed 12 months, less any period of parental leave that the other member of the employee couple will have taken in relation to the child.

(c) The employee’s request must be in writing and given to GPAC at least 4 weeks before the end of the current parental leave period. The request must specify any parental leave that the employee’s spouse will have taken.

(d) GPAC shall consider the request having regard to the employee’s circumstances and, provided the request is based on the employee’s parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable business grounds.

(e) GPAC will not refuse the request unless GPAC has given the employee a reasonable opportunity to discuss the request.

(f) GPAC will give a written response to the request as soon as practicable, and no later than 21 days after the request is made. The response will include the details of the reasons for any refusal.
C Total period of parental leave
(a) The total period of parental leave, including any extensions, must not extend beyond 24 months.
(b) In the case of an employee couple, the total period of parental leave for both parents combined, including any extensions, must not extend beyond 24 months. The employee’s entitlement to parental leave under clauses 4.5.4 or 4.5.5 will reduce by the period of any extension taken by a member of the couple under clause 4.5.20.

4.5.21 Calculation of pay for the purposes of parental leave
The calculation of weekly pay for paid parental leave purposes will be based on the average number of ordinary hours worked by the employee over the past 3 years. The calculation will exclude periods of unpaid parental leave.

The average number of weekly hours worked by the employee, determined in accordance with the above, will be then applied to the annual salary applicable to the employee’s classification and salary point at the time of taking parental leave to determine the actual rate of pay whilst on parental leave.

Despite the above, an employee who reduces the time fraction they work to better cope during pregnancy will not have their subsequent paid parental leave reduced accordingly.

The employee may elect to take any paid parental leave entitlement at half pay for a period equal to twice the period to which the employee would otherwise be entitled.

4.5.22 Commonwealth paid parental leave
Paid parental leave entitlements outlined in this clause are in addition to any payments which may be available under the Commonwealth Paid Parental Leave Scheme.

4.5.23 Returning to work
A Returning to work early
(a) During the period of parental leave an employee may return to work at any time as agreed between GPAC and the employee, provided that time does not exceed 4 weeks from the recommencement date desired by the employee.
(b) In the case of adoption, where the placement of an eligible child with an employee does not proceed or continue, the employee will notify GPAC immediately and GPAC will nominate a time not exceeding 4 weeks from receipt of notification for the employee’s return to work.

B Returning to work at conclusion of leave
(a) At least 4 weeks prior to the expiration of parental leave, the employee will notify GPAC of their return to work after a period of parental leave.
(b) Subject to 4.5.23B(c) an employee will be entitled to the position which they held immediately before proceeding on parental leave. In the case of a employee transferred to a safe job pursuant to clause 4.5.12 above, the employee will be entitled to return to the position they held immediately before such transfer.
(c) Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employee will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of their former position.
C Returning to work at a reduced time fraction

To assist an employee in reconciling work and parental responsibilities, an employee may request to return to work at a reduced time-fraction until the child reaches school age, after which the employee will resume their substantive time-fraction.

Where an employee wishes to make a request under this sub-clause, such a request must be made as soon as possible but no less than 7 weeks prior to the date upon which the employee is due to return to work from parental leave.

4.5.24 Consultation and communication during parental leave

Where an employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, GPAC shall take reasonable steps to:

(a) make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave; and

(b) provide an opportunity for the employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave.

The employee shall take reasonable steps to inform GPAC about any significant matter that will affect the employee’s decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the employee intends to return to work and whether the employee intends to request to return to work on a part time basis.

The employee shall also notify GPAC of changes of address or other contact details which might affect the GPAC’s capacity to comply with this sub-clause.

4.5.25 Extended family leave

An employee who is the primary caregiver and has exhausted all parental leave entitlements may apply for unpaid extended family leave as a continuous extension to their parental leave taken in accordance with this clause. The total amount of leave, inclusive of parental leave taken in accordance with this clause cannot exceed 7 years.

The employee must make an application for extended family leave each year.

An employee will not be entitled to paid parental leave whilst on extended family leave.

Upon return to work GPAC may reallocate the employee to other duties.

4.5.26 Replacement employees

A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged or temporarily acting on higher duties or transferred, as a result of an employee proceeding on parental leave.

Before GPAC engages a replacement employee GPAC will inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

4.5.27 Casual employees

GPAC will not fail to re-engage a casual employee because the employee has accessed parental leave in accordance with this clause. The rights of GPAC in relation to engagement and re-engagement of casual employees are not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.

4.6 Long service leave

4.6.1 Entitlement

(a) An employee who has continuously served 10 years with GPAC is entitled to 90 calendar days long service leave with full pay in respect of that period of ten years of service, and 45 calendar days long service leave with full pay in respect of each additional five completed years of service.

(b) By agreement, an employee is entitled to access their long service leave entitlement, on a pro-rata basis, after an initial 7 years of continuous service.

(c) Where a public holiday occurs during a period of long service leave granted to an employee, the public holiday is not to be regarded as part of the long service leave and GPAC will grant the employee a day off in lieu.

4.6.2 Long service leave paid on termination of employment
Employees are entitled to a pro-rata long service leave payout on termination of employment after seven years of recognised and continuous service.

4.6.3 Continuous employment and casual employees
In addition to any eligible absences due to illness or parental leave, employment for casuals will be regarded as continuous if:

(a) There has been no more than a three month absence between two periods of employment in accordance with the definition of continuous service in section 62 of the Long Service Leave Act 1992 (Vic).

(b) There is more than an absence of three months between two particular instances of employment, but the length of the absences is due to terms of engagement of the employee by GPAC as requested by the employee, confirmed in writing by employee and GPAC and, documented in personnel file.

4.7 Jury leave and court appearances
Jury leave is an entitlement of all employees.

As part of GPAC’s commitment to the community and to its employees, jury/witness leave allows employees to attend court proceedings without the loss of pay, except where they are the instigator or defendant of proceedings. Casual employees should use best endeavours to provide 2 weeks’ notice of their unavailability for the jury selection day and GPAC will ensure the employee is reimbursed for any shortfall between pay for pre-rostered shifts and jury sitting fees (as applicable).

If an employee is required to attend Court proceedings on behalf of GPAC, the employee will be reimbursed reasonable expenses including legal costs if applicable except where legal proceedings relate to fraud or misconduct by that employee.

4.8 Emergency services leave
Employees who are members of voluntary emergency relief organisations, including but not limited to the Country Fire Authority, Red Cross, State Emergency Service and St John’s Ambulance and who wish to volunteer in emergency situations, may be released from normal duties without loss of pay provided details of the request are communicated to the GPAC before the employee is released, and written confirmation is provided by the relevant organisation.

4.9 Reserve defence force leave
Leave with pay may be granted for defence force service in accordance with the Defence Reserve Service (Protection) Act 2001 (Cth) and the Veteran’s Act 2005 (Vic).

An employee required to complete defence force service will consult with GPAC regarding the proposed timing of the service and will give GPAC as much notice as is possible of the time when the service will take place.
Any payment made to the employee in respect of defence service during his or her ordinary hours of work must be repaid to GPAC, with reasonable expenses actually incurred over and above those that the employee would normally incur being offset against this amount.

4.10 Compassionate leave

Full time and regular part time employees (on a pro-rata basis) are entitled to 3 days paid compassionate leave on each occasion when a member of the employee's immediate family or a member of the employee's household:

(a) contracts or develops a personal illness that poses a serious threat to his or her life;
(b) sustains a personal injury that poses a serious threat to his/her life; or
(c) dies.

Any unused portion of compassionate leave will not accrue from year to year and will not be paid out on termination.

Such leave does not have to be taken consecutively.

An employee may take unpaid compassionate leave by agreement with GPAC management.

GPAC will require the employee to provide satisfactory evidence to support the taking of compassionate leave.

4.11 Cultural and ceremonial leave

(a) An employee may, by agreement with their manager, substitute another day for any prescribed leave in this clause to observe religious or cultural occasions of particular significance to them as an individual (see also clause 4.2(a)).

(b) In the case of an employee of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent, GPAC management may approve:

(i) Attendance during work hours of the employee to attend Aboriginal community meetings (except the AGM of such organisations at which election of office bearer’s will occur).

(ii) The use of accrued annual leave or other leave to attend AGM’s of community organisations at which election of office bearer’s will occur.

(iii) Ceremonial leave without pay for ceremonial purposes connected with the death of a member of the immediate or extended family (so long as no employee shall have an existing entitlement reduced as a result of this clause) or ceremonial obligations under Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Law.

4.12 Leave to attend alcohol and drug or problem gambling rehabilitation

An employee (including systematic casuals) who has completed more than two years continuous service may be granted leave without pay to undertake an approved rehabilitation program where GPAC management is satisfied that:

(a) The employee’s work performance is adversely affected by the misuse of drugs or alcohol or problem gambling

(i) The employee is prepared to undertake such a course of treatment.

(ii) In the case of drug and alcohol addiction, a registered medical practitioner has certified that in his or her opinion the employee is in need of assistance because of their misuse of drugs and alcohol and that the employee is suitable for an approved rehabilitation program or;

(iii) In the case of problem gambling, the employee satisfies the eligibility criteria for entry into an approved problem gambling rehabilitation program.
(b) On production of proof of attendance at an approved rehabilitation program as above an employee may be granted a maximum number of days leave as follows:

<tr>
<th>Years of service</th>
<th>First year of program</th>
<th>Subsequent years of program</th>

4.13 Leave in relation to infectious diseases/dangerous medical condition

(a) Upon report from a medical practitioner that by reason of contact with a person suffering from an infectious disease and through the operation of restrictions imposed be law in respect of such disease, an employee is unable to attend work, GPAC management may grant the employee special leave of absence without pay (should work from home arrangements not be appropriate). The period of leave must not be for any period beyond the earliest date at which it would be practicable for the employee to return to work having regard to the restrictions imposed by the law.

(b) Where GPAC management reasonably believes that the employee is in such a state of health as the render the employee a danger to other employees, themselves or other persons, GPAC management may require the employee to absent himself or herself from the workplace until the employee obtains and provides GPAC management with a report from a registered practitioner. Upon receipt of the medical report, GPAC management may direct the employee to be absent from duty for a specific period, or, if already on leave, direct the employee to continue leave for a specified period. Any such absence of an employee must be regarded as sick leave.

4.14 Leave in relation to blood donations

An employee (other than a casual employee) may be granted paid leave to visit the Red Cross Blood Bank as a donor once every three months by agreement with their manager.

4.15 Leave in relation to family violence

4.15.1 Commitment to supporting employees

GPAC recognises that employees sometimes face situations of violence or abuse in their personal life that may affect their attendance or performance at work. Therefore, GPAC is committed to providing support to employees that experience family violence.

Family violence leave is available to employees who are experiencing family violence, and also to allow them to be absent from the workplace to attend counselling appointments, legal proceedings and other activities related to and as a consequence of family violence.

4.15.2 Definition of family violence

GPAC accepts the definition of family violence as stipulated in the Family Violence Protection Act 2008. The definition of family violence includes physical, sexual, financial, verbal or emotional abuse by a family member.

4.15.3 Eligibility

Leave for the purpose of supporting employees experiencing family violence is available to all employees.
4.15.4 General measures

Proof or evidence of family violence may be required and can be in the form of an agreed document issued by the police service, a Court, a registered health practitioner, a district nurse, a maternal health care nurse, a family violence support service or lawyer. A signed statutory declaration can also be offered as evidence.

All personal information concerning family violence will be kept confidential in line with GPAC policies and relevant legislation. No information will be kept on an employee’s personnel file without their express written permission.

No adverse action will be taken against an employee if their attendance or performance at work suffers as a result of experiencing family violence.

GPAC will identify a contact(s) to be trained in family violence including privacy issues, risk assessment and risk management. GPAC will advertise the name(s) of the contact(s) within the Centre.

An employee experiencing family violence may raise the issue with their immediate supervisor, union delegate or nominated GPAC contact. The immediate supervisor may seek advice from GPAC contact(s) if the employee chooses not to see the GPAC contact(s).

Where requested by an employee, the GPAC contact(s) will liaise with the employee’s supervisor on the employee’s behalf, and will make a recommendation on the most appropriate form of support to provide in accordance with appropriate sub clauses 4.15.5 and 4.15.6.

GPAC will develop guidelines to supplement this clause which detail the appropriate action to be taken in the event that an employee reports family violence.

4.15.5 Leave

A full time employee experiencing family violence will have access to 20 days per year (non-accumulative) of paid special leave following an event of family violence and for related purposes such as for medical appointments, legal proceedings and other activities related to family violence. This leave is not cumulative but if the leave is exhausted consideration will be given to providing additional leave. This leave will be in addition to existing leave entitlements and may be taken as consecutive or single days or as a fraction of a day and can be taken without prior approval.

A permanent part time employee will have access to leave each year according to the employee’s ordinary hours of work for medical appointments, legal proceedings and other activities related to family violence.

Casual employees who at short notice cannot undertake their shift due to family or carer related family violence issues will be entitled to a maximum of 23 hours pay per year for missed shifts upon the provision of evidence consistent with clause 4.15.4 and up to 52 weeks unpaid leave.

Leave for family violence is not cumulative.

An employee who supports a person experiencing family violence may utilise their personal/carer’s leave entitlements to accompany them to court, to hospital, or to care for children. GPAC may require evidence consistent with clause 4.15.4 from an employee seeking to utilise their personal/carer’s leave entitlement.

4.15.6 Individual support

In order to provide support to an employee experiencing family violence and to provide a safe work environment to all employees, GPAC will approve any reasonable request from an employee experiencing family violence for:
(a) temporary or ongoing changes to their span of hours or pattern or hours and/or shift patterns;
(b) temporary or ongoing job redesign or changes to duties;
(c) temporary or ongoing relocation to suitable employment;
(d) a change to their telephone number or email address to avoid harassing contact;
(e) any other appropriate measure including those available under existing provisions for family friendly and flexible work arrangements.

Any changes to an employee’s role should be reviewed at agreed periods. When an employee is no longer experiencing family violence, the terms and conditions of employment may revert back to the terms and conditions applicable to the employee’s substantive position.

An employee experiencing family violence will be referred to the employee assistance program (EAP) and/or other available local employee support resources. The EAP shall include professionals trained specifically in family violence.

An employee that discloses to GPAC that they are experiencing family violence will be given information regarding support services.
5 Termination of employment

5.1 Notice of termination by GPAC

In order to terminate the employment of a full time or regular part time employee, GPAC will give the period of notice specified:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Period of continuous employment</th>
<th>Notice period</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Not more than 1 year</td>
<td>1 week</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 1 year but not more than 3 years</td>
<td>2 weeks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 3 years but not more than 5 years</td>
<td>3 weeks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Over 5 years of completed service</td>
<td>4 weeks</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In addition to this notice, employees over 45 years of age at the time of the giving of the notice with not less than two years continuous service are entitled to an additional week’s notice.

Payment in lieu of the notice will be made if the appropriate notice period is not required to be worked. Employment may be terminated by the employee working part of the required period of notice and by GPAC making payment for the remainder of the period of notice.

In calculating any payment in lieu of notice, the wages an employee would have received in respect of the ordinary time they would have worked during the period of notice had their employment not been terminated will be used.

The period of notice in this clause, will not apply in the case of dismissal for conduct that justifies instant dismissal.

GPAC shall, upon receipt of a request from an employee whose employment has been terminated, provide to the employee a written statement specifying the period of his or her employment and the classification of or the type of work performed by the employee.

5.2 Notice of termination by an employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of GPAC, except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned.

If an employee fails to give notice GPAC has the right to withhold monies due to a maximum amount equal to the ordinary time rate of pay for the period of notice.

5.3 Time off during notice period

Where GPAC has given notice of termination to an employee, the employee will be allowed up to one day’s time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off will be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with GPAC.

5.4 Abandonment of employment

Abandonment of employment occurs when an employee is absent from work for more than five working days and GPAC has not received satisfactory explanation of the reason for the absence or failure to attend work.

On the sixth working day the Finance & Administration Manager will prepare and forward a letter by certified mail to the last known address of the absent employee advising the employee to contact their Manager or report to work within 2 business days of the date of the certified mail.
If there is no contact from the employee arrangements to terminate the employment of the employee will be implemented.

Should the employee whose employment has been terminated for reasons of abandonment be able to give just cause for their absence GPAC will consider reinstatement of employment.
6 Dispute procedures

6.1 Resolution procedures of disputes

Unless otherwise provided for in this Agreement, a dispute about a matter arising under this Agreement, the National Employment Standards, or any workplace matter other than termination of employment, must be dealt with in accordance with this clause.

This includes a dispute about whether an employer had reasonable grounds to refuse a request for flexible working conditions under clause 3.4 or an application to extend unpaid parental leave under clause 4.5.20.

For the avoidance of doubt this clause does not apply to any dispute on a matter or matters arising in the course of bargaining in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement.

GPAC management or an employee covered by this Agreement may choose to be represented at any stage by a representative, including an employer or employee organisation.

6.2 Obligations

The parties to the dispute, and their representatives, must genuinely attempt to resolve the dispute through the processes set out in this clause and must cooperate to ensure that these processes are carried out expeditiously.

While a dispute or grievance is being dealt with in accordance with this clause, work must continue according to usual practice, provided that this does not apply to an employee who has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety, has advised GPAC management of this concern and has not unreasonably failed to comply with a direction by GPAC management to perform other available work that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

No person covered by the Agreement will be prejudiced as to the final settlement of the dispute or grievance by the continuance of work in accordance with this clause.

6.3 Agreement and dispute settlement facilitation

For the purposes of compliance with this Agreement (including compliance with this dispute settlement procedure) where the chosen employee representative is another employee of GPAC management, he/she must be released by his/her employer from normal duties for such periods of time as may be reasonably necessary to enable him/her to represent employees concerning matters pertaining to the employment relationship including but not limited to:

(a) investigating the circumstances of a dispute or an alleged breach of this Agreement or the National Employment Standards

(b) endeavouring to resolve a dispute arising out of the operation of this Agreement or the National Employment Standards; or

(c) Participating in conciliation, arbitration or any other agreed alternative dispute resolution process.

The release from normal duties referred to in this clause is subject to the proviso that it does not unduly affect the operations of GPAC management.

6.4 Discussion of dispute

The dispute must first be discussed by the aggrieved employee(s) with the immediate supervisor of the employee(s).

If the matter is not settled, the employee(s) can require that the matter be discussed with another representative of GPAC management appointed for the purposes of this procedure.
6.5 Internal process

If any party to the dispute, who is covered by this Agreement, refers the dispute to an established internal dispute resolution process, the matter must first be dealt with according to that process, provided that the process is conducted in a timely manner and is consistent with the following principles:

(a) the rules of natural justice
(b) appropriate mediation or conciliation of the dispute is provided
(c) any views on who should conduct the review; will be considered by GPAC
(d) the process is conducted as quickly and with as little formality as a proper consideration of the matter allows.

If the dispute is not settled through an internal dispute resolution process, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the FWC for conciliation and if the matter remains unresolved arbitration.

6.6 Disputes of a collective character

The parties of the agreement acknowledge that disputes of a collective character concerning more than one employee may be dealt with more expeditiously by an early reference to the FWC.

No dispute of a collective character may be referred to FWC directly unless there has been a genuine attempt to resolve the dispute at the workplace level prior to it being referred to the FWC.

6.7 Conciliation

(a) Where a dispute is referred for conciliation, a member of FWC may arrange for whatever process the member considers may assist in the resolution of the dispute.

(b) Conciliation before the FWC shall be regarded as completed when:
   (i) the parties to the dispute have informed the FWC member that they have reached agreement on the settlement of the dispute; or
   (ii) the member of FWC conducting the conciliation has, either of their own motion or after an application by either party, satisfied themselves that there is no likelihood that within a reasonable period further conciliation will result in a settlement; or
   (iii) the parties have informed FWC member that there is no likelihood of agreement on the settlement of the grievance or dispute and the member does not have substantial reason to refuse to regard the conciliation proceedings as completed.

6.8 Arbitration

6.8.1 Right to request arbitration

If the dispute has not been settled when conciliation has been completed, either party may request that FWC proceed to determine the dispute by arbitration.

6.8.2 Right to object to a member of FWC taking part in both conciliation and arbitration

Where a member of FWC has exercised conciliation powers in relation to the dispute, the member shall not exercise, or take part in the exercise of, arbitration powers in relation to the dispute if a party to the dispute objects to the member doing so.
6.8.3 FWC determination is binding
Subject to clause 6.8.4, the determination of FWC is binding upon the persons covered by this Agreement.

6.8.4 Appeal to the full bench of the FWC
An appeal can be made to a full bench of the FWC, with the leave of the full bench, against a determination of a single member of FWC made pursuant to this clause.

6.9 Conduct of matters before FWC
Subject to any agreement between the parties to the dispute, in relation to a particular dispute and the provisions of this clause, in dealing with a dispute through conciliation or arbitration the FWC may conduct the matter in accordance with Subdivision B of Division 3 of Part 5-1 of the Fair Work Act 2009.
7 Discipline

For all employees, except those subject to a probationary period, where an alleged breach of discipline occurs, GPAC will ensure that the employee is accorded procedural fairness (natural justice) in relation to the discipline process, including their choice of nominated representative. Where the employee is subject to a probationary period refer to clause 3.1.4 for the relevant terms and conditions relating to discipline.

Where an allegation of misconduct is substantiated, that employee will be given a formal notice of an official warning that will apply for an appropriate length of time, as determined by the General Manager or delegate. The official warning will take into account the seriousness of the charge and mitigating circumstances.

For instances of serious misconduct the employee may be dismissed instantly.

7.1 Principle

In the instance of unsatisfactory performance and unacceptable behaviour it is important that a clear process is followed to ensure the employee has full knowledge of the situation, is offered every chance to improve and is afforded procedural fairness. Where there is no improvement, only then should termination procedures be implemented.

7.2 Policy and procedure

The following are guidelines for undertaking warning procedures. Depending on the seriousness of the breach involved the procedures can be varied.

7.3 Counselling

Generally the first session will be a formal counselling session conducted by the Coordinator or Manager that will lead to a note in the employee’s file. This meeting should be held with the employee to draw their attention to the behaviour and the standards that are expected in the future. Managers should ensure the following processes have been carried out and keep a record:

(a) the role has been described to the employee
(b) the employee understands the role
(c) evaluation criteria have been established and agreed to
(d) the employee has been evaluated over an adequate and realistic period of time
(e) the employee has understood and reviewed the evaluation
(f) the role cannot reasonably be modified to allow the employee to perform satisfactorily
(g) alternative roles for the employee have been considered

An aspect of the poor performance may be a lack of training or expertise in a particular area. The Manager should discuss this possibility with the employee and if appropriate arrange for training to take place.

The employee will be asked to sign a copy of the notes taken from this meeting and be given the opportunity to comment on / add to such notes. A copy of these notes will be given to the employee for their records.

The poor performance must be addressed and steps for addressing this are set out in this clause.

The employee will be given a chance to improve and if necessary given a program with a time frame outlining specific behaviours and outcomes. If the performance does not improve it is then necessary to deal with the poor performance using the warning procedure.
7.4 First warning

At this meeting the facts / complaints / allegations, with specific examples, will be presented to the employee. A number of steps must be followed in this and any subsequent counselling/disciplinary meetings:

(a) Prior to the meeting the employee will be informed that a meeting is scheduled and that they are entitled to invite a support person of their choice to the meeting. The employee will be provided with a copy of GPAC’s Discipline (Warning and Dismissal) Policy.

(b) The employee must be informed of the allegation(s) being made. The employee must be provided with a clear description of the poor performance, including specific behaviour(s) that is considered unacceptable. This should be clear and incident specific.

(c) The employee must be given the opportunity to present their response to the complaint. The employee must be asked if there are reasons that are not apparent to the Manager that might be contributing to the behaviour.

(d) A program for improvement should be set in place with a reasonable time frame and clearly defined goals to be achieved. This program must make clear the expectations of the employee’s workplace behaviour taking into account their reasons for their poor performance. The discussion may also surface any concerns the employee might have about meeting the expectations.

(e) Set a period of time for review, which should be sufficiently distant as to allow the employee to reach the required standard.

(f) The meeting should be documented by a summary of the matters discussed and a list of the goals identified in (d) above. Copies of this record will be supplied to all present who are free to add comment. The employee will be asked to sign receipt of this document. If the employee does not wish to sign the note this does not affect its status as a record of the meeting. A copy of the note will be placed on the employee’s confidential personnel file.

(g) The warning procedure will be explained to the employee.

(h) If the outcome of this meeting is that a first warning is to be given to the employee this will be provided in writing. This letter will state the reason for the warning and identify any follow up support and arrangements.

If the Manager is happy with the employee’s subsequent performance the following should occur:

(a) The review meeting should still be held and the employee advised that the Manager is aware of the improvement and that expectations have been fully or partially met and that if subsequent performance continues to improve then there will be no further issue with the employee’s performance.

(b) A further meeting should be scheduled approximately eight weeks after the first Meeting to allow for continued improvement in performance. If at this meeting the job performance is met, no further action is required.

If the Manager is not happy with the employee’s subsequent performance, then the only appropriate action is to proceed to the second warning stage.

7.5 Second warning

If the employee’s performance has not improved in accord with the guidelines described above, or there is a repetition of conduct, which was defined as being unacceptable in the first warning process, a meeting should be called for the purpose of issuing a second warning to the employee.
Again, the steps followed in the issuing of the first warning should be followed. The employee should be given the opportunity to be accompanied at the meeting by a nominated representative or other person of their choice (e.g. Union representative) and it is advisable to have their Head of Department or Manager present.

At this meeting the employee must be given the opportunity to respond to the allegations made.

Reference should be made to the previous meeting or counselling sessions and the minutes of those sessions.

The employee’s explanation should be addressed and discussion held as to whether, or why, those explanations are unsatisfactory.

The status of the meeting should be clearly explained to the employee. That is, if a second warning is the outcome, dismissal will occur if a satisfactory and reasonable level of improvement is not reached within a reasonable time.

This meeting should be summarised in a letter to the employee detailing these points. A copy of this letter should be placed on the employee’s file.

7.6 Third and final warning/dismissal

If the employee’s performance has not improved to the reasonable level defined in the second warning, there should be a further interview with the employee before a dismissal occurs.

The employee should be given reasonable notice of this meeting, including an explanation of the purpose of the meeting (i.e. to decide whether the dismissal will occur) to allow him or her to prepare what to say. A union representative or other person of their choice may accompany the employee.

The interview should be conducted with the supervisor of the department concerned and the Administration Manager or General Manager.

The purpose of the meeting is to explain why the performance of the employee is still unsatisfactory despite opportunities being given for improvement and or provide the employee with a final opportunity to provide explanations.

At the end of the meeting the decision must be made whether to dismiss the employee or not. This decision should not be made in haste and if necessary further advice should be sought.

If the Manager has decided to dismiss the employee, and this is authorised by the General Manager, then the Manager may, at their discretion, decide that the dismissal should be effective from the date of hand-delivering the letter of termination at a meeting with the employee.

The letter will advise:

(a) the standard of performance expected in this role has not been achieved and that GPAC has decided to terminate employment

(b) the date to which the employee will be paid (i.e. period of notice in accordance to the Award provisions)

(c) the final working date, which may be the date of the letter in which case GPAC will pay an amount equal to the employee’s remuneration as at the termination date in lieu of any notice period

(d) The Manager will also explain that due to security issues the employee:

(e) will be accompanied back to their desk to collect their personal belongings

(f) may nominate another person to accompany the employee back to collect their personal belongings
(g) may nominate a person to pack up the employee’s belongings and deliver them to the home address

(h) will not be able to access any systems on GPAC’s database but may request the downloading of any files of a personal nature held on the employee’s computer

(i) arrangement will be made to pick up any GPAC property/equipment held at home

(j) an electronic funds transfer into the employee’s nominated bank account will be available within four working days as payment in lieu of the period of notice and will include all entitlements

Immediately following the meeting the Manager should advise internal security and IT to remove access to all systems.

Refer to section 5 Termination of employment for further information.
8 Consultation, change and redundancy

8.1 Communication and consultation

GPAC and employees are committed to utilising consultative processes in matters, which will or may directly affect employees.

8.2 Staff consultative committee

To facilitate the implementation of the Agreement, ongoing workplace reform and any changes related to refurbishment and redevelopment, it is agreed that there will be commitment to effective consultation and communication. It is agreed that a Staff Consultative Committee (SCC) shall be formed that will have the responsibility for its implementation. Membership nomination will be open to all employees. The SCC will:

(a) Oversee the implementation of this Agreement
(b) Provide a mechanism for improving communication and consultation with all employees on all matters raised by all employees that relate to effective and efficient work practices and training including review of the annual training plan developed in accordance with clause 3.14.1.
(c) Where redevelopment and associated major change is to be considered in accordance with clauses 8.3, 8.4, 8.5 & 8.6, the SCC will be involved in a consultation process, particularly as it relates to the introduction of new technology and equipment or changes to operating policies and procedures.
(d) Review existing methods of communication (such as intranet, newsletters, general employees and department meetings) to increase understanding of any proposed workplace changes resulting from redevelopment.
(e) Provide a forum on the development and improvement of policies and procedures.

The SCC will comprise:

(a) General Manager
(b) Staff representatives from across the Centre (aiming at one representative from each department)
(c) Three Management team representatives
(d) Unions and staff representative, as applicable

The SCC may establish a specified working group to develop and trial new policies/working arrangements. The working group would report back to the SCC on the progress of such trials.

The SCC shall meet no less than 4 times each year and meetings will take place at times which minimise the need for replacement staff. Employees will be paid to attend but attendance will not incur overtime/penalty payments.

A manager who is part of the SCC will be nominated as the secretariat and will use best endeavours to issue agendas 48 hours prior to each meeting, taking minutes and distributing to all employees once approved by SCC representatives.

8.3 Major change

Where GPAC is considering a major organisational change of the workplace GPAC will consult with the affected employees and the relevant union of the proposed change as soon as practicable after the formal proposal has been considered by the GPAC Trust.

GPAC will advise of the likely effects on employee working conditions and responsibilities. GPAC will also advise of the rationale and intended benefits of any change.
(a) Employees may nominate a representative that may be a Union representative, to represent them in the consultation process and GPAC will recognise a representative nominated by an employee.

(b) The process of consultation will commence when there is a formal proposal for major change which will have a significant effect on employees. From then on GPAC will regularly consult with affected employees and/or their nominated representatives, and give prompt consideration to matters raised by them. GPAC will provide training for the employees to assist them to integrate successfully into any new structure.

(c) As soon as practicable after GPAC has developed a change proposal, GPAC will discuss with the relevant employees:
   (i) the introduction of the change;
   (ii) the effect the change is likely to have on the employee(s); and
   (iii) measures GPAC is taking to avert or mitigate the adverse effect of the change on the employee(s)

(d) For the purposes of discussion GPAC will provide, in writing, to the relevant employees:
   (i) all relevant information about the change including the nature of the change proposed;
   (ii) information about the expected effects of the change on the employees; and
   (iii) any other matters likely to affect employees

   GPAC is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant employees.

(e) All parties must act in good faith in relation to the consultation process provided in this clause where “good faith” includes obligations to meet, disclose relevant information, genuinely consider proposals and respond with reasons, and refrain from capricious or unfair conduct that undermines consultation.

(f) Major change is likely to have a significant effect on employees if it results in the:
   (i) termination of the employment of employees;
   (ii) restructure of business unit(s);
   (iii) major change to the composition, operation or size of GPAC’s workforce or to the skills required of employees;
   (iv) elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure);
   (v) alteration of hours of work;
   (vi) need to retrain employees;
   (vii) need to relocate employees to another workplace;
   (viii) restructuring of jobs.

(g) In accordance with this clause the employee and/or their nominated representatives may submit alternative proposals, which will meet the indicated rationale and benefits of the proposal. Such alternative proposals must be submitted in a timely manner so as not to lead to an unreasonable delay in the introduction of any contemplated change. If such a proposal is made, GPAC must give just cause to the employees and their nominated representatives if GPAC does not accept its proposals. Any dispute concerning obligations under this clause shall be dealt with in accordance with section 6.
8.4 Redevelopment and refurbishment
In the advent of redevelopment/refurbishment occurring during the life of this Agreement which will cause interruption to workflow, GPAC undertakes to communicate as soon as practicable the particulars of the work and its impact to employees and to enter into consultation with the employees and their representatives about the possible relocation of work to unaffected areas and other work related matters, including training requirements, that may arise to ensure that wherever possible regular hours of work can be maintained (see also clause 8.3). GPAC will provide regular updates to employees in relation to the progress of the redevelopment.

8.5 Redeployment
Where a decision is made by GPAC which will result in a change to the way work is carried out or work no longer being performed, and as a result the employee’s position becomes excess to requirements, consultation with the employee and/or their nominated representative will occur to determine possibility to redeploy the employee to another position if a suitable vacancy exists and provide necessary training.

8.6 Redundancy
The Victorian Government policies in relation to public sector redundancy and redeployment are set out in the Public Sector Industrial Relations Policies or its successor. These policies apply to GPAC but do not form part of this Agreement.
Specific terms and conditions: administration employees

9.1 Personal leave
An employee will progressively accrue 15 days personal/carer’s leave per 12 month period from commencement of employment.

Personal leave is cumulative from year to year but is not paid on termination of employment.

9.2 Spread of hours
The normal spread of hours is 76 to be worked as any 10 days of 14 in a fortnight, 8.00am – 11.00pm, subject to overtime and time in lieu provisions as per clauses 9.4 and 9.5 respectively.

The standard working week for Administration employees is Monday to Friday. The spread of hours may be varied to any 10 days of 14 in the fortnight by mutual agreement between employees and the General Manager.

A normal working day, of which 10 days would make up the 76 hour fortnight, would commence at 9.00am, conclude at 5.36pm and include a one hour unpaid meal break. The hours of the normal working day may be varied within the 76 hours of the fortnight to suit an individual, in consultation with the General Manager or his or her delegate.

The ordinary hours of work for a day consist of a minimum of 3 hours and a maximum of 10 hours.

General staff meetings will consist of a minimum 1.5 hours.

9.3 Meal breaks
A normal meal break will be of up to one hour’s duration. An employee is not to work more than 5 hours without a meal break. Where a meal break cannot be taken until later than five hours after commencing work, the period of time between the five hours from commencement of work to the commencement of the break shall be accrued at double time.

9.4 Overtime
(a) GPAC may require reasonable additional hours to be worked subject to an employee’s right to refuse, under clause 3.1.6. Where practicable and mutually agreed between the employee and the General Manager, time in lieu provisions as provided in clause 9.5 may replace overtime with exceptions outlined in clause 9.5.

(b) Employees shall be paid overtime for work performed Monday to Saturday in excess of 10 hours in a day at the rate of time and a half.

(c) Employees shall be paid overtime for work performed in excess of 38 hours per week at the rate of time and a half.

(d) Employees shall be paid overtime for work performed on public holidays at the rate of double time.

(e) Employees shall be paid overtime for work performed between the hours of 11:00pm and 8:00am at the rate double time.

(f) Any overtime to be worked must be authorised in advance by the General Manager or delegate.

(g) In instances where administration employees are required to undertake operational duties, due to no operations employees being available to undertake those duties, they will be paid the same penalties as operations employees at their substantive administrative rate. Where possible this will require the approval of the General Manager or delegate.
9.5 Time in lieu

(a) The employee and the General Manager or delegate may agree that the employee shall take time in lieu in place of overtime.

(b) Time in lieu accrued and taken will be recorded on fortnightly timesheets.

(c) The employee and the General Manager or delegate may agree that an arrangement for time in lieu may be made on an ongoing basis.

(d) Time in lieu may be granted to replace the following instances of overtime:

   (i) Hours worked on Monday to Saturday in excess of 10 hours in a day may be granted on the basis of one and a half hours off for each hour worked

   (ii) Hours worked in excess of 38 hours per week may be granted on the basis of one and a half hours off for each hour worked

   (iii) Hours worked on a Sunday may be granted on the basis of two hours off for each hour worked.

(e) Time in lieu may not be used to replace the following instances of overtime:

   (i) Hours worked between the hours of 11:00pm and 8:00am

   (ii) Hours worked on public holidays.

(f) Time in lieu may be accumulated to a maximum of 38 hours and shall be taken at a time which is mutually convenient to the employee and GPAC.

(g) Time in lieu which accumulates to over 38 hours must have the written approval of the General Manager.

(h) Time in lieu will be monitored by the General Manager or delegate on a regular basis.

9.6 Work on Sunday

An employee may be required to work Sunday as one of their ten days in fourteen in a fortnight. Under these circumstances a penalty of double time is applicable.

9.7 Work classifications and pay rates

Employees are engaged according to classifications as set out in Appendix C and Appendix D. It should be noted that GPAC does not currently have employees employed in Grade 6 and 7. Pay rates are detailed in Appendix A.

10.4 Hours of work and time off – all operations employees

The spread of hours of work as specified in clauses 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3 may be varied by mutual agreement between GPAC and an employee.

An employee who is required to wear a uniform and who is required to change into and from such uniform at work, will be allowed up to fifteen minutes changing time at the commencement and conclusion of each shift. The time allowed for changing to and from such uniforms will count as time worked.

Except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement an employee engaged by the hour, who has been required to attend for the purpose of starting work and has actually so attended, will be paid for working from the time the employee so attends.

The work of employees will be so arranged that wherever reasonably practicable they have at least ten consecutive hours off duty between shifts on successive days.

An employee who is rostered to commence ordinary hours of duty without having had at least ten consecutive hours off duty since the termination of work on the previous day will, subject to this subclause, be given ten consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for any rostered working time occurring during such absence.

If on the instructions of GPAC management, an employee resumes work without having had ten consecutive hours off duty, that employee will be paid at double time rates (unless a higher rate is otherwise applicable) until released from duty for such period and will then be entitled to be absent until having had such ten consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for rostered working time occurring during such absences.

Where an employee continues or resumes work on a Sunday or public holiday, that employee will be paid at the appropriate rate for such work, which may include payment in excess of double time.

10.5 Call-backs – full-time and part-time operations employees

An employee recalled to work overtime after leaving his/her employer’s business premises (whether notified before or after leaving the premises) will be paid for a minimum of three hours work at the appropriate rate for each time they are so recalled. Provided that except in the case of unforeseen circumstances arising, the employee will not be required to work the full three hours if the job he/she was recalled to perform is completed within a shorter period.

This will not apply in cases where it is customary for an employee to return to his/her employer’s premises to perform a specific job outside his/her ordinary working hours, or where the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the completion or commencement of ordinary working time.

Overtime worked in the circumstances specified in clause 10.5 will not be regarded as overtime when the actual time worked is less than three hours.

Where an operational employee is directed at short notice to perform an alternate operational role, the employee will be paid at their substantive rate for the duration of the hours worked.

10.6 Notice of change – all operations employees

Where an employee is required to work all night after the evening performance the employee will, wherever possible, be given 24 hours notice. Should an employee, because of special circumstances, not desire so to work he/she may arrange for a competent deputy to take his/her place. Whether the deputy is competent will be a decision of GPAC.

10.7 Meal breaks

It is important that all employees receive proper breaks to prevent fatigue.
Meal breaks will, where possible be taken within the following times:

(a) Lunch – a continuous period of time between 12:00noon and 3:00pm
(b) Dinner – a continuous period of time between 5:00pm and 8:00pm
(c) Breakfast – a continuous period of time between 7:00am and 9:00am

Under normal circumstances a meal break should be granted not later than five hours after commencing work. Where a meal break cannot be taken until later than five hours after commencing work, the period of time between five hours after commencing work and the time of commencement of the meal break shall be paid at double time unless the employee choses to miss a meal break and this is authorised by their supervisor. Missed meal breaks would not be approved if the employee is working longer than 7.6 hours. The period of time allowed for a meal break is not counted as ordinary hours of work.

10.7.1 Technical employees

(a) A normal meal break will be of one hour’s duration for Head Technicians, Supervising technicians, Technicians, Stage hands, Projectionists and Stage door employees.
(b) In exceptional circumstances hirers will be given the opportunity to schedule half hour meal breaks. This is confined to school shows only, where the hirer must finish in time for students to be back at school by 3.30pm. In this case a penalty of double time is applicable for the missed half of the meal break.
(c) Employees are not obliged to return to work from a meal break in less than an hour at the request of a hirer.
(d) There may be exceptional circumstances, which require a reduced meal break. The supervising technician will assess the situation and guided by the GPAC meal break policy will offer an alternative to the hirer. If as a result of this consideration a meal break is reduced to a half-hour, a penalty of double time is applicable for the missed half of the meal break.
(e) Employees may elect to take a meal break less than an hour in order to alter their rostered start or finish time. This may be done in consultation with the Operations Manager so long as this practice does not incur penalty payments.
(f) Unless otherwise authorised employees must take a 1 hour meal break on Sundays and public holidays.

10.7.2 Cleaning employees

A normal meal break will be of one half hour’s duration for Head cleaners and Cleaners.

10.7.3 Front of house, box office and food & beverage employees

(a) A normal meal break will be of one hour’s duration for Front of house supervisors, Head ushers, Ushers, Programme and merchandise sellers, Booking clerks, Ticket sellers, Food & beverage attendants levels 1, 2, 4 & 5 and Food & beverage cook level 6.
(b) If a shift is six hours or less, a half hour meal break may be rostered, with no penalty payment applicable.

10.8 Short breaks for technical employees

Due to the nature of work in theatres, employees are asked to remain aware of the needs of the hirer and be flexible in the timing of taking short breaks wherever possible.

Employees are entitled to one short break of up to 15 minutes, during a shift of between three and five hours.

Additional short breaks for smoking/refreshments are not permitted.
It is important for safety and operational reasons that venue users/hirers are not left unattended in GPAC work areas. This includes professional and community users. Therefore GPAC technical employees should coordinate short breaks and to ensure an employee is always on duty.

When a short break is needed, employees are required to advise the Supervising Technician. When approving short breaks the Supervising Technician is required to:

(a) assess the most appropriate time to take the break
(b) communicate the need for a break to a co-worker and the hirer
(c) confirm the most appropriate time with the hirer and co-workers

If one employee is rostered on a shift, then measures must be taken to ensure that a short break can be taken such as:

(a) using a technical department employee to provide relief
(b) rostering additional employees to cover breaks

Additional short breaks during a shift are allowable for the following reasons:

(a) toilet break
(b) water/refreshment
(c) rest
(d) emergency/urgent business

10.9 Personal leave

(a) An employee will progressively accrue 10 days personal/carer’s leave per 12 month period from commencement of employment.

(b) Personal leave is cumulative from year to year but is not paid on termination of employment.

10.10 Work classification

10.11 Allowances

All allowances detailed below and specified in Appendix B will be adjusted in line with LPA rates as ratified by the FWC.

10.11.1 Tools/equipment

(a) Where GPAC requires an employee to wear suitable protective clothing GPAC will reimburse the employee for the cost of purchasing the uniform. This clause does not apply where the uniform is supplied by GPAC.

(b) Where it is necessary for employees to work in wet weather, GPAC will reimburse the employee for the cost of purchasing overcoats and wet weather gear. This clause does not apply where the clothing is supplied by GPAC.

(c) Where it is necessary for employees to use mechanical equipment including torches GPAC will reimburse the employee for the cost of purchasing this equipment. This clause does not apply where this equipment is supplied by GPAC.

10.11.2 Uniform

Where GPAC does not launder employee uniforms a uniform allowance will apply as set out in Appendix B.

10.11.3 Unusual costume or unusual uniform

If an employee is required to wear a costume or uniform more unusual than is reasonably necessary for the performance of his/her work, an allowance will apply as per Appendix B.

10.11.4 Appearance on stage

Where a technical employee is required to appear on stage as a formally directed part of a performance, an allowance will apply as set out in Appendix B. This allowance is not applicable where the task is changing or moving scenery, props, sound, lighting and musical equipment or presenting flowers.

10.11.5 Recording allowance

Where a performance is to be recorded or transmitted by any means, all production employees who perform work on that performance are to receive an allowance as set out in Appendix B, provided that:

(a) the recording allowance will only be paid when the recording or transmission takes place during a performance or performances; and

(b) one (1) payment only will be made, notwithstanding that recording of a production may take place over a series of performances.

Where a performance is recorded for sound only or transmitted by radio only the provisions of clause 10.11.5 will apply to Sound Technicians only.
The provisions of clause 10.11.5 will not apply to:

(a) extracts of a performance or performances which are recorded or transmitted for news, publicity or promotional purposes, including paid television or radio commercials for that performance or season of performances;

(b) a performance or performances which are recorded for training, educational or archival purposes, provided that the hirer undertakes in writing to GPAC that such recordings will not be used for public broadcast, exhibition, distribution or sale;

(c) occasions when the only purpose of the hiring is the recording or transmission of a performance, even though a non-paying audience may be present.

This allowance is not to be recorded as ordinary pay insofar as the calculation of overtime, penalty, shift and annual leave loading payments are concerned.

Where GPAC proposes an exclusion from payment of the recording allowance as provided for in clause 10.11.5, GPAC will provide all production employees with seven (7) days notice of any such performance provided that where such recording or transmission is arranged with less than seven (7) days’ notice, all production employees will be provided with notice as soon as arrangements for the relevant recording or transmission are made.

10.11.6 Meal allowance

Box office employees who work a continuous shift, and do not receive a meal break are to be paid a weekly meal allowance as set out in Appendix B.

Employees (other than cleaners) who have worked between midnight and 8.00 a.m. and who work past 8.00 a.m. are to be paid an allowance as set out in Appendix B for each meal interval occurring before their finishing time, provided that, this will not apply to an employee who has commenced work at or after 5.00 a.m.

Employees required to work overtime without being notified on the previous day or earlier that they will be required to work, will either be supplied with a meal by GPAC or be paid an allowance as set out in Appendix B for the second and subsequent meal.

10.11.7 Accommodation

Where an employee is required to travel the following provisions will apply:

(a) Where the period of travel is one week or less GPAC will provide suitable accommodation or by mutual agreement, an allowance as set out in Appendix B shall be payable, in lieu of the provision of accommodation.

(b) Where the period of travel is greater than one week GPAC will provide suitable accommodation or if GPAC elects not to provide accommodation then the employee will be reimbursed for the expenses of such accommodation up to the maximum limits set out in Appendix B.

(c) Where GPAC and the employee agree in writing, shared accommodation may be provided by GPAC. GPAC will retain a copy of any such agreement.

(d) Where GPAC is not providing accommodation and employees agree in writing to share accommodation the reimbursement limits set will be increased by 25% in respect of such shared accommodation. A copy of such agreement will be retained by GPAC.

(e) Reimbursement will be made weekly or at such longer intervals as agreed and will be made upon presentation by the employee of a receipted account for the accommodation or such other arrangements as are agreed.

(f) In lieu of the provisions of (a) an employee may elect to take a cash allowance as set out in Appendix B.
(g) When any travel in excess of one (1) week duration is required, as much notice as is practicable must be given. Such notice will also include, whether GPAC is providing accommodation in accordance with this clause and the details of the accommodation. The employee must indicate within 14 days of the offer of accommodation whether they propose to accept the offer, unless impractical to do so in the circumstances.

(h) GPAC will assist any employee who requests such assistance in the obtaining of any available discounts on accommodation of the employee’s choice.

10.11.8 Meals

Employees required to travel will be provided by GPAC with all meals or paid an allowance as set out in Appendix B.

10.11.9 Incidentals

Employees required to travel will be paid an allowance for incidentals as set out in Appendix B.

10.11.10 Other

(a) A permanent employee required to travel and remain away from their usual place of residence, will travel by economy class aircraft or, if there are no scheduled flights, then first class train or bus transport.

(b) Where an employee is required to use their motor vehicle or motor cycle at the request of GPAC, the employee will be paid an allowance as set down by the LPA for the use of private vehicle or motorcycle.

(c) GPAC will not require any employee to undertake travel if it necessitates travelling by a conveyance to which such employee has a reasonable objection.

(d) The rate of pay for travelling time outside of the normal working hours will be ordinary rates, except on Sundays and public holidays where it will be time and a half.

(e) The maximum travelling time to be paid for will be twelve (12) hours out of every 24 hours, or when a sleeping berth is provided by GPAC for all-night travel, eight (8) hours out of every 24.

10.11.11 Working late allowance

Where an employee is required to work overtime until it is too late to travel home by the last train, tram or his/her other regular public conveyance GPAC will reimburse the employee for the cost of travelling home. This clause does not apply where GPAC supplies the transport.
11 Relationship with union and right of entry

It is recognised by GPAC, unions and employees that union membership is an individual choice but GPAC will assist employees to build an understanding the role of unions. In this context:

(a) Employees are entitled to be represented by their nominated representative or delegate in relation to matters arising under his agreement.

(b) GPAC will provide paid leave for up to seven union delegates (one from each department) for purposes of industrial relations training and union meetings to a maximum of 6 hours per financial year. This training will be delivered on site at GPAC. Permanent and casual employees will include these hours as part of their standard working hours so that no penalties are incurred.

(c) Nominated representatives of employees are entitled to:
   (i) Post or distribute written or electronic material in the workplace relating to matters arising under this Agreement
   (ii) Reasonable time off from normal duties to enable them to properly carry out representative functions, including representing employees and participating in consultation activities or bargaining activities. Such time off will not unduly affect GPAC’s operational requirements.

(d) GPAC will facilitate payment of Union membership fees by salary deduction when requested by employees.

(e) GPAC shall provide access to a designated noticeboard. Staff delegates or representatives will be permitted to post authorised union materials on these noticeboards.

(f) GPAC will notify union representatives of any formal induction training for new employees.

(g) GPAC will include information in relation to union membership as provided by the union in welcome information for new employees.

(h) GPAC will facilitate distribution of information in relation to proposed visits by the union(s) to the workplace.

(i) GPAC will consider payment for MEAA members to attend union meetings on a case by case basis with prior notification to GPAC by the union. Agreement will not be unreasonably withheld. Employees may attend such union meetings during work time without loss of pay. Permanent and casual employees will include these hours as part of their standard working hours so that no penalties are incurred.

(j) For the purposes of ensuring compliance with this Agreement and the FWC Act, an official of the MEAA who has been issued with an entry permit by the Fair Work Commission pursuant to section 512 of the Fair Work Act 2009 will be permitted access to the workplace provided he/she complies with the provisions set out in Part 3-4 of the Fair Work Act 2009.

Appendix A – Rates of pay

Rates of pay

All rates of pay refer to starting rates of pay for new employees. Employees employed prior to the date of the first pay increase in accordance with this Agreement may have earned one or more performance increments during the life of the previous Agreement and will therefore have rates of pay that vary from the current rates of pay prior to the first pay increase in accordance with this Agreement in the tables below. Employees may request individual calculations illustrating the progress of rates of pay in accordance with this Agreement at any time during the life of this Agreement.

Operations employees

1st March is the date at which base rates are increased by the agreed annual increase in clause 2.4.1. A casual loading of 25% is then applied.

Appendix D – Grade descriptors – administration employees

This structure provides for 6 levels and a Senior Technical Specialist. The classification of each grade is based on the level of the work undertaken and encompasses the elements of decision-making, communication and knowledge and proficiency. The Grade and Value Range Descriptors place generic functions together under the categories of Policy and Projects, Administrative and Corporate Support, Operational Service Delivery and Technical/Specialist roles.

The Grade Level Descriptors that are set out below provide an indicative summary of the entry point of each Grade as a guide.

The Value Range Descriptors then provide further detail on work value within each Grade. Not all elements of each Value Range are required to satisfy the requirements of the Grade/Value Range, but should be considered on the basis of best fit to describe the work. In Grades with a number of Value Ranges, the first Value Range provides the base, to which relevant elements from the second value range must be added for the purposes of advancement to this level.

- Initiate and manages negotiations with peers (internal and external to work unit) to gain commitment to projects, and delivery of activities to meet timelines

Grade 7

Work Environment:

This category covers only those jobs that require the highest level of specialist professional expertise within the VPS. Grade 7 classification roles can be distinguished from other classifications or categories as follows:

Executive Officers

In contrast to Executive Officers Grade 7 roles are not expected to take a broad, ongoing leadership role in the agency; they work within a particular field of expertise. They achieve their goals through utilising specific academic knowledge, extensive industry and subject matter expertise. They inspire and stimulate others through exercising these professional skills. While many executive roles require qualifications and experience in a particular field or discipline, in contrast with Grade 7 roles, executives do not utilise these attributes as a vocation; rather, their experience informs their management of others in achieving organisational goals.

Other Employees

There may be other employees within an agency, who work in the same field or discipline, as the Grade 7 role but the Grade 7 role tends to be unique in nature. They are the primary agency or VPS expert or ‘head of discipline’ within their area of expertise.

Grade 7 roles undertake projects and endeavours of significantly greater complexity than other non-executives. Projects by grade 7’s are major Government initiatives and carry a far greater risk to Government than a non-executive would typically be expected to manage. The nature of the required expertise means that the recruitment market is very limited.

Typical functions:

While some VPS jobs will have one or more of the Specialist Professional category qualities, jobs only meet the Grade 7 standard if they are consistent with the following:

- The role is commonly recognised as a profession;
- The primary focus of the role is practising the profession at the expert level;
- Where the role includes managing others, the focus is on providing leadership, guidance and inspiration within the profession or discipline;
- The job represents the highest level of expertise in the agency within the specific field;
- The job requires recognition as an expert within the particular field;
- The level of expertise and specialisation is rare within the agency and, as a general rule, the field.
Dear Deputy President Kovacic,

RE: AG2017/5665 Application to expedite approval of the Geelong Performing Arts Centre Enterprise Agreement 2016 - 2020

Thank you for your consideration of our application for approval of the above Agreement.

We note that our letter of 7 March 2018 regarding undertakings included an inadvertent error in describing the Live Performance Award. We would now like to correct that error as follows:

- Regarding the concerns you have highlighted we have consulted with bargaining representative Adam Portelli, Media Entertainment and Arts Alliance and are agreed that we are willing to provide the following undertakings:
  - Geelong Performing Arts Centre undertakes that Grade 1 rates be paid at not less than applicable Live Performance Award 2010 rates (currently $19.88); and
  - Geelong Performing Arts Centre undertakes that clause 5.4 of the Enterprise Agreement will operate subject to the National Employment Standards.

We also advise that there has been a change in the Applicant for the approval of the Agreement and we have lodged a revised Form 16 today. Jill Smith’s employment finalised on Friday 16 March 2018 and I am now the new Chief Executive Officer making the application.

Again we thank you for your review of our application documents and look forward to the approval of our Agreement.

Yours sincerely,

Joel McGuinness
Chief Executive Officer
